BID to boost festive trade

Independent shoppers get parking reward

By Paul Crompton

DAYTIME shoppers can get money off their car parking charges thanks to a pilot scheme aimed at boosting Dorchester's trade.

Shoppers and visitors to the town will get a voucher with their car-parking ticket, which can then be redeemed for £1 at participating stores throughout the town.

Participating shops and businesses will display a blue parking sign available from Dorchester Business Improvement District (BID) to show shoppers they are supporting the scheme.

Around 40 businesses are involved in the initative, which began on Monday, November 1st and incorporates West Dorset District Council run car parks in Dorchester.

To redeem the voucher shoppers need to spend a minimum of £10 on goods or services to receive the discount at the till.

DBID will collect the vouchers at the end of the two-month trial period of November and December.

The latest scheme is aimed at helping those smaller businesses in the town that may not benefit from the freezing of parking charges in the town on Sunday's and between 7pm and 8am.

Charges in all the WDDC's car parks have been stopped during a two-year period except in those along the coastal strip from West Bexington to Lyme Regis.

BID and Dorchester Chamber of Commerce have achieved the move through a two-year campaign.

DBID's Phil Gordon said: "Now obviously going live with free parking initiative the parking vouchers is in addition to that. It's fantastic, a real boost economically for the businesses, restaurants, cafés and so on in the town.

"There is a group of businesses that are not being helped with the free parking initiative, the daytime shops open from

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

FATHER-of-five Mark Mabey lives in Netherbury with his wife and children.

He was brought up in Southampton and attended King Edward VI School before training as a chartered quantity surveyor over a number of years with day release attendance at Southampton College of Further Education.

He has worked in the private sector and public sector as well as the in-between housing association sector and currently works for Magna as head of development.

Mark had an interesting spell at work for London Underground in fire safety improvement, following the King's Cross fire in the late 1980s.

His hobbies and interests include fishing, travelling, history and tracing his family tree. He has traced his family back to both Netherbury (18th century) and Powerstock (17th century).

WHAT does your job involve?
I head a team of about a dozen staff who are responsible for the new house building programme across Magna Housing Group. So a combination of line management of staff as well as working with Directors and non-executive members on the development strategy and financial implications of being an active affordable housing business. My day-to-day work at the moment includes getting our team revenue budget and new housing capital budgets prepared for next year.

WHAT is the best part of your job?
Visiting live building sites, which I do less often now than I used to. An active site has quite a buzz to it and meeting new residents who have just moved into their new homes. The latter is what our work is all about.

WHAT schemes are you currently working on?
My team is working on a number of projects. The most local to Bridport is the site at Dibdin View (Flaxhayes) for 57 new homes' which should be complete next spring.

WHAT would be your dream job?
Running a post office in rural New Zealand – being a combination of a childhood desire to run a post office and an evolving desire to live in New Zealand.

WHERE is the best place you have visited?
I've been fortunate enough to visit many countries and recently spent five months away from work travelling with my family so a difficult one to answer – but perhaps the most unusual place – because of what is there – is Moeraki on the east coast of New Zealand's South Island. The beach there is strewn with crystal-filled circular boulders that are 'conceived' underground and 'born' often via the cliffs onto the beach.

WHERE would you still like to go?
China – our plane had an abortive take-off from Hong Kong last year and so we spent an unexpected night in Hong Kong which has whetted my appetite to see more of what is in my view the real China.

WHICH football team do you support and what are their chances this season?
I've supported Tottenham Hotspur since the early 1970s and I'm glad to say that I think this year 'we' can finish in the top five securing a place in European Competition next year. It's about time they won the FA Cup again – so fingers crossed on that one.

WHO would be your three dream guests at a dinner party and why?
Nikola Tesla – a very clever man who could tell us how to sort out our future energy needs.

Michelangelo di Lodovico Buonarroti Simoni or Mike to his friends - another man way ahead of his time – would love to hear what he would be working on now if he was still alive.

Ronnie Rosenthal – an ex-professional footballer who had a short spell with Spurs – so I could chat about Spurs but also say that I would have scored against Aston Villa when he managed to miss an open goal from about two yards out.

WHAT was the last book you read, film you watched and CD you listened to?
I'm reading a book about the origins of Freemasonry – lots of thought provoking ideas linking ancient stories to modern belief systems and how and when what we know today as Freemasons may have evolved. The last film was Stranger than Fiction, courtesy of a work colleague, classed as a comedy but found quite an interesting concept. Worth a view but do not expect too many laugh out loud moments. The last CD was a home-made compilation courtesy of my teenage daughters including Justin Bieber who is apparently a well-known Canadian singer.

Name is well worth the change

ONE of Dorchester's most iconic shops has decided it's well worth changing its name as it looks to expand across the south west.

Having risen from the ashes of the old Woolworths to capture the nation's imagination, the shop affectionately known as "Wellies" is to be rechristened once again amid a legal wrangle over the name.

Amalgamating its old moniker with Dorchester, the shop opened by radio and TV personality Chris Evans 18-months-ago is to be renamed Wellchester over the course of the next two years..

The move follows the failure to secure from Shop Direct agreeable terms under which the business under the Wellworths name could expand.

Shop Direct, the parent of Littlewoods, owner of the Woolworths name, initially supported the opening of the former Woolworths store in Dorchester as Wellworths, but then sought an agreement which would place limits on the growth of the business under the Wellworths name.

However, rather than accept those limits, Wellworths, which was opened by former Woolworths employee Claire Robertson back in March 2009, has decided to replace the name.

Ms Robertson said: "We have been extremely pleased with the way things are going, we have made a profit in the first year and that's why we are looking to expand. The reason we have to change is so we can expand.

By Paul Crompton

"We are going to be looking at stores across the South West of the country in a similar town which currently hasn't got a general retailer, so looking at town where we think we could do a similar job to here.

"We chose the new name because obviously we were Wellworths and so we're taking that part of the name and chester because of Dorchester.

"I think we became so well known because we are a positive story; we are doing something against the run of play, there's so much doom and gloom and we did something a bit different.

"It's just a change of name, people come here because of what we sell not the name, there's going to be nothing different, it will be exactly the same just a different name."

The terms of the two-year agreement with Shop Direct/Littlewoods are confidential, and Ms Robertson is legally unable to comment further on them.

Dorchester Business Improvement District's (BID) Phil Gordon said: "I think it's really a shame, the fact they have to change the name, but I've no doubt Claire and the team will rise to the challenge and the new name is obviously brilliant.

"Considering the time and effort it took in building the reputation it seems a little unfair, but it does now mean they can expand across the county; a lot of people ask why there isn't another one open elsewhere and I imagine that's why they changed the name, they are looking into the future."

Nine hurt in four car crash

NINE people were taken to Dorset County Hospital on Monday afternoon after a four car crash on the A35.

The collision occurred two miles west of Winterbourne Abbas when a red and silver Mitsubishi 4x4, travelling towards Bridport, veered into oncoming traffic.

The Mitsubishi collided with three cars travelling in the opposite direction, a silver Mercedes, silver Mazda and a Green Volkswagen Passat.

Occupants were trapped in both the Mercedes and Volkswagen cars and had to be rescued by the Fire Brigade, Ambulance and Air Ambulance crews.

The incident which took place around 1:20pm on Monday afternoon closed the road in both directions for two hours.

Nine people in total were taken to hospital with a range of injuries, some serious.

Next of kin have been informed.

New drop in centres for hate crime victims

INDIVIDUALS living in fear now have specially designated drop in centres where they can safely report incidents of hate crime.

An historic inquiry into the high profile death of hate crime victim Stephen Lawrence has led to a number of Third Party Reporting Centres opening in Dorchester.

The centres have been set up following the inquiry's conclusion that some people wish to report hate crime without attending a police station.

The centres are located at Dorset County Council and the local District/Borough council offices, or tenants of Magna or Sovereign housing can drop in to one of their local offices.

Victim support also has a telephone reporting line on 01202 606200.

Councillor Ray Nottage, Chair of Dorset Community Safety Partnership, said: "We want to give victims of hate crime as many opportunities as possible to report abuse.

"While some victims may feel comfortable reporting abuse to the police, it has been recognised that some victims would prefer to be in a more neutral environment.

"These reporting centres will provide that service, allowing victims to talk freely to a centre's trained staff.

■ THE launch of the new Hate crime drop in centres in Dorchester

"Our message for victims of hate crime is: do not suffer in silence.

"We, the council, police and other community safety agencies, take reports of hate crime extremely seriously and action will be taken to deal with any reports that are received."

Hate crime is the targeting of individuals, groups or communities because of who they are. It is any crime, incident or harassment motivated by someone's race, faith, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender or age.

Once a victim has disclosed abuse a member of staff at the Third Party Reporting Centres will signpost them to the relevant agencies as agreed during the report. To find your nearest Third Party Reporting Centres go to www.dorsetforyou.com/hatecrime. Victims of hate crime can still report abuse directly to Dorset Police by: visiting their local police station; telephone on 01202 222 222; or via an online form on the Dorset Police website www.dorset.police.uk.

Plea for faster broadband

RESIDENTS and businesses are being urged to vote for faster, better broadband.

Local group DorBAG, supported by local district and town councils, is promoting the need for better media communication in Dorset.

BT has said they will look at supplying high speed internet to communities that return a large number of votes for high speed internet.

West Dorset District Council and Dorchester Town Council's David Barrett said: "We have been concerned about this for some time now and an opportunity has been presented by BT for faster broadband. It would make businesses more efficient if they had an immeasurably quicker service; faster means quicker, more money and more possibilities.

"It's a case of sign up, it's what businesses claim they need both for outgoing and incoming messages.

"This has the potential to help all the business in the area and individuals working from home as well as residents.

"A broadband survey is being carried out by BT looking for residents to sign up to a survey. To prove that the exchange in there locality needs faster broadband people need to sign up otherwise we won't get it.

"It is essential for the future of businesses in this area, and subsequent employment, that people register their votes"

DorBAG is chaired by Oliver Letwin and meetings are attended by BBC South and BBC Southwest, in addition the digital television switch over group attend meetings and are active in helping the group resolve reception problems to digital television highlighted in its database.

Dorchester Town Councillor Len Heath said: "It is recognised that as a rural community we need good high speed internet access, this has been recognised by both business and residential users.

"Therefore we are very keen to get as many local businesses and residences as possible to go to the BT site and vote for the future.

"This is now very important because the high speed internet link being supplied to Weymouth for the Olympics will make an ideal starting point for a full fibre-optic network locally."

BT has set up a web site to allow people to vote for high speed broadband in their area and this is easily reached via the following hyperlink www.race-toinfinity.bt.com.

Parking rewards for Dorchester shoppers

9.30am to 5pm and those that are perhaps not big enough to open on Sundays, so I thought what can we do to help them?

"So, where people see the free parking sign, as long as they shop there, they will get two hours free parking.

"It will give the independent shops an edge over the other shops. From here on it's running as a pilot to Christmas, but if successful and businesses find they are not having to pay too much for people parking it could be continued for good."

This week also saw the start of the free Sunday and evening parking after the council introduced charges for overnight parking (7pm - 8am) in 2005 following a member scrutiny of parking charges.

The move will hit WDDC's coffers by £58,700 in the next year at a time when central government funding to councils is being cut. The overall budgeted income from car-park fees for 2010/11 is £2,316,000.

Recycler The Robot spreads the word on being green

RECYCLER the rapping robot has been spreading the word on waste with a West Dorset tour.

The interactive educational show run by Waste Watch, in partnership with Dorset County Council, visited primary and secondary schools across the county teaching the modern day three 'Rs'.

The three Rs for waste management are 'reduce, reuse and recycle' and were taught by 'Recycler' the robot and fellow presenter Shirley Barre.

The rapping robot taught pupils a song and dance routine and even gave out prizes after a quiz.

Recycling promotions Officer for Dorset County Council, Dave Levi, said: "The shows have been going great and we have had a great response from the schools and the pupils. The children actually know a lot more than you think which is excellent.

"We are just giving the same message but because it is coming from a different source it really connects with the children."

BUILDING site manager Steve Carr, who works at Poundbury for Dorset firm C G Fry & Son, has been judged the best in the South West.

Steve, 45, from Weymouth, received the honour at a regional Pride In The Job awards ceremony staged by the National House Building Council at Weston super Mare.

He was announced as the region's overall winner in the category for medium-sized firms, and will now be one of eight finalists in that category in the Pride In The Job national awards in January.

Steve, who has been a site manager for C G Fry & Son for eight years, said: "I'm delighted. It's a tough competition.

"The judges know what they are doing and they look at every aspect of the site, from groundwork to the final cleaning ready for handover to the customer.

"This award is fantastic for me but it's also fantastic for the team all around me here, who are meticulous in their attention to detail.

"We aim to be second to none, and this award confirms that we're achieving that."

In their comments about the regional winners, the competition judges said: "The commitment to quality of both Stephen and the site team is unquestionable."

The Pride In The Job competition this year also saw success for another C G Fry & Son site manager.

Jason Hockey won a Quality award – his fourth in five years.

Kevin Murch, Construction Director for C G Fry & Son, based at Litton Cheney, said: "Our company has always taken a pride in its reputation for quality of construction, and the number of awards our people have won over the years is an endorsement of the company's standards.

"In the building of new homes the site manager's job is a crucial one. He sets the standards and leads by example. If you want an excellent result you have to have an excellent site manager, and it is good to see our guys featuring in the awards yet again."

Youngsters make a difference

YOUNGSTERS in Dorchester have been making a difference by volunteering their help.

With the help of youth chairman at the Dorchester Youth Club, Rory Major, and town and district councillor David Barrett, youngsters set about restoring a ond to it's former glory.

The project formed part of Making a Difference Day, which gives voluntary groups to chance to help make a difference in their communties.

John's Pond, close to Hangman's Cottage, had not been cleared for a number of years.

Dorchester Town Clerk Dennis Holmes highlighted the area as in need of urgent attention but with no funds to make it happen.

So along came Rory and his band of helpers to help make a difference.

Armed with shovels, rakes and wheelbarrows, Rory, along with Camille Walker, Sharon Rose and her two sons Jake and Lee, worked hard to fill a four ton trailer with mud and debris, clearing not only the pond but the river beyond the pond, allowing the water to once again run free without stagnating.

Passers-by expressed their appreciation of the effort put in by the young people to improve one of Dorchester's most delightful areas,

Armed for action, the volunteers with David Barrett and Mayor of Dorchester Councillor Leslie Phillips one even giving a donation towards their next project.

David Barrett said: "It is times like these when all too often young people are unfairly criticised, that you feel a warm glow inside, proud to be part of their world and with the opportunity to stand up and say so."

Mayor of Dorchester, Councillor Leslie Phillips, for many years himself Chairman of the Youth Club, was also on hand to give encouragement.

He said: "I would like to thank David for organising the day, and his wife Lynda for fetching a delicious Cornish pasty lunch, courtesy of the town council.

"We need to show these young people that we appreciate them and all they bring to our town, to make it a richer and better community to live in."

Dorset volunteers honoured with awards

THE Volunteer Centre Dorset held their Volunteer Awards 2010 ceremony at the Dorford Centre in Dorchester.

Prize winners came from across the county to receive recognition for all their hard work and dedication in all areas of the community.

Hosted by the Allen Knott, and attended by the Mayor of Dorchester, Councillor Leslie Phillips, the awards were divided into three categories – Young Volunteer of the Year, Volunteer Group of the Year, and Volunteer of the Year.

Winners included volunteers if the Flower Power Project, Woofability Assistance Dogs, Dorchester Blind Club, the Sherborne Skatepark Group, and young volunteers from Dorset V among many others.

Presenting the awards were Matt Tozer, senior broadcast journalist with Wessex FM, town and

Volunteers thanked at Poppy Appeal launch

THE 2010 Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal was launched at the Keep Military Museum in Dorchester by Poppy Appeal organiser Graham Rhys-Jones and attended by the Mayor.

The Exhortation was read by Harry Sutcliffe from the Dorchester branch of the Royal British Legion before Mr Rhys-Jones officially launched the 89th Poppy Appeal in the county town.

Around 30,000 poppies are distributed across the town each year, and the Poppy Appeal is now the biggest source of income for the Royal British Legion.

As well as veterans of the two World Wars, there are currently 10,000 veterans of current conflicts and almost nine million people nationally who are potential clients.

As in previous years, the launch of the Poppy Appeal is an ideal opportunity to thank the many people without whose help the distribution and selling of poppies would not be possible. Presentations were made to 24 sellers including Kathleen Sheppard who has spent seventy years selling poppies, starting when she was just 14-years-old.

She has since lived and sold poppies in three counties – Devon, Dorset and Kent – and will be out on the streets of Dorchester again this year. Poppy Appeal organiser Mr Rhys-Jones said: "We are fortunate in Dorchester to have an army of long service helpers on whom the success of the Poppy Appeal depends.

"We rely totally on their support in carrying out house to house collections, distributing the poppy boxes around the town, and taking part in street collections."

After himself receiving an award for 45 years service, the Mayor of Dorchester, Councillor Leslie Phillips, purchased the first poppy to be sold in Dorchester. "Selling poppies is something I enjoy doing," said Mr Rhys-Jones.

"Every person should buy a poppy and wear it with pride.

"We must never forget the tremendous debt owed by each and every one of us to so many people who made, and continue to make, the ultimate sacrifice in the name of freedom."

Dorchester elects new England manager

FAIR Votes for Dorset are a local cross-party supported organisation campaigning for a Yes vote in next May's referendum on changing the voting system.

They recently set up a polling booth in South Street, Dorchester, and throughout the morning encouraged shoppers to take part in a Mock Election to choose the next England football manager.

With a choice between Harry Redknapp, Jose Mourinho, Fabio Capello, Arsene Wenger and Sven Goran Eriksson, this gave a hands-on experience of using the Alternative Voting system as well as the more familiar First Past the Post system, which is currently in use.

And Fair Votes for Dorset's returning officer, David Smith, declared Harry Redknapp the clear winner.

In many First Past the Post elections, the winning candidate doesn't command anything like 50 per cent of the popular vote share in a given Parliamentary constituency, local government ward or county division.

■ RICHARD Denton-White sets up shop in South Street, Dorchester, with town crier and campaign supporter Alistair Chisholm

A clear majority of electors may reject a particular candidate and yet be saddled with them as their representative because of the split votes in the First Past the Post system.

The Alternative Voting system works by transferring peoples' second, third, fourth and fifth preferences to determine a candidate with at least 50 per cent of the vote share in a given ward, division or constituency, ie. a clear majority.

Fair Votes for Dorset Chair Richard Denton-White said: "We are talking a new kind of democratically accountable politics here.

"Our next England football manager mock election was just a bit of fun, and undoubtedly Harry Redknapp was bound to do well after England's poor showing in South Africa.

"I'm sure he'll be flattered he won the popular vote, and I'll invite him to 'get between the sticks' for our Yes Vote campaign."

Anyone interested in backing the Fair Votes for Dorset campaign in readiness for the 2011 referendum can phone Richard Denton-White on 01305 826724, membership secretary Matthew Coussell on 01202 874401, or the treasurer on 01305 815965.

■ DOT Hand (far right) and her helpers with some of the wonderful prizes on offer

Happy helpers help make Christmas bingo a success

THE hard working and energetic Dot Hand once again gathered together her happy band of helpers to create another Big Christmas Bingo in the Corn Exchange, Dorchester.

The hall quickly filled up, as on every other occasion, with people looking forward to a fun evening while at the same time raising money for the Weldmar Hospicecare Trust.

And as ever, Dot and her friends had gathered together a wonderful array of prizes, for both the bingo and the raffle.

An efficient team of tea makers kept the players suitably refreshed, numbers were called, cards marked, and seasonal fayre vied for as a packed Corn Exchange bingoed well into the night.

On Saturday, 6th November Dot and co will be in action again, this time in the United Church, Dorchester for a Christmas Coffee Morning.

Entrance is 50p, to include coffee and a mince pie.

As well as a Big Draw and a tombola there will be various stalls selling toys, Christmas cards, toiletries, homemade cakes, jewellery and much much more. So please pop along, say hi to Dot and her friends, and support the Weldmar Hospicecare Trust.

Casterbridge Rotary prepare for young musicians' concert

THE Dorchester Young Musicians Festival 2010 performance classes are being held on Saturday, November 13th at The United Church, Dorchester.

The festival is open to all musicians up to 18 years of age who reside or receive their education within the Dorchester School's area.

The performance classes are arranged in four age groups and ten categories, ranging from individual instrumental entries to group entries, classical or pop, including a class for composition.

Brochures and entry forms are available from the Dorchester Tourist Information Centre, or by telephoning (01305) 848685.

Members of the public are welcome to listen to the performance classes free of charge. They will start at 9am and finish late afternoon.

A festival concert will be staged on Saturday, November 27th at the United Church Dorchester, starting at 7pm for which entrants will be selected to provide a balanced programme.

There are awards for the best performances in each of the four age groups and the climax of the evening will be the announcement of the "Casterbridge Young Musician 2010".

Concert tickets are available from the Dorchester Tourist Information Centre or at the door, price £5 for adults. Accompanied children and festival entrants are free.

This is the 17th annual Music Festival organised by the Rotary Club of Dorchester Casterbridge.

The core aim is to encourage as many musicians as possible to take part, to gain confidence in public performance and to receive helpful advice from a small team of adjudicators.

Proceeds from the event will be used to assist in the purchase of musical instruments for local schools.

Cash boost for Webber's Piece

SOCIAL activities at Webber's Piece sheltered housing complex in Maiden Newton have been boosted by a cheque for £200.

The money was presented to June Symes, who is chairman of the Webber's Piece Social Club, which puts on events like coach trips, bingo, fish and chip meals and coffee mornings.

It was given to her by Moira Dalgleish as part of the money raised when Webber's Piece became a NAAFI for the Maiden Newton at War event in the summer.

A further £200 went to the Webber's Piece Residents' Association.

The two groups are looking forward to working more closely together in future and hope to put up an events board in the community room of the complex, which is run by Magna Housing Association.

District council wins award

West Dorset District Council recently won the Federation of Small Businesses Friendly Award for Best Programme or Campaign.

The council was recognised for its rate relief service to small and rural businesses.

The district council supports many rural village shops, post offices, pubs and filling stations, as well as considering awards of hardship rate relief for businesses in difficulty and ensuring as many businesses as possible benefit from the national small business rate reduction scheme.

Chairman of the FSB Wessex Ken Moon said: "These awards are an excellent way to say 'thank you' to council members and officers who rarely get recognised for the work they do.

"The nominations show that a great deal of effort is being made and we look forward to working alongside the councils to keep this momentum going."

"Rates are a significant barrier to small businesses and we are very grateful to West Dorset District Council for taking this issue seriously and undertaking such a positive campaign."

To find out more about rate relief contact West Dorset District Council's Business Support Team on 01305 252378 or email business@westdorset-dc.gov.uk

Christmas art on sale

The upstairs room at the Poundbury Garden Centre will be displaying artist made pictures, photographs, and cards created by five Dorchester Artists, running every day from Wednesday, November 17th through until Monday, November 22nd.

The exhibitors are Gill Cook, Sue Jenkins, Jennifer Martindale, Pam Patrick and Jenny Trotman, providing a good variety of potential gifts to browse through.

In addition to the garden supplies, Poundbury Gardens in Peverell Avenue East, provides a lift as well as stairs, a café and a Christmas Grotto, all with plenty of free parking.

Simon forges TV career starring in new BBC series

SIMON Grant-Jones at work in his forge in Sutton Poyntz

A LECTURER at Kingston Maurward College, near Dorchester, has travelled back in time for a new BBC television series.

Simon Grant-Jones, 46, is one of the stars of BBC1 new series series "Turn Back Time - The High Street", which started this week (November 2nd).

The series follows a group of modern-day shop keepers - a baker, a butcher, an ironmonger and a grocer - as they set up shop in the picturesque market square of Shepton Mallet in Somerset.

Mr Grant-Jones and his fellow traders completely immersed themselves in the lives of their trades, living and working exactly how they would have done during the last century, charting how their lifestyles and shops change.

Beginning in the Victorian era the show passes through the Edwardian period and the Second World War before concluding in the retail frenzy of the 1970s.

SIMON on set and in costume for the BBC show

"I loved every single minute of it," said Simon, who teaches forgework at the Dorchester land-based campus - and was the show's ironmonger.

He has his own forge at his home in Sutton Poyntz near Weymouth and this year became the National Champion Blacksmith after putting his work before judges in qualifying agricultural shows.

He said: "I'm really interested in history so jumped at the chance to live it for real."

Simon spent four weeks filming the show in five-day segments, returning briefly to his 21st Century life while the programme makers dressed the "High Street" set for the next historical period.

"If I could have stayed in the Victorian era I would have, even though it was a hard life," he said.

For him the best part of the experience was discovering a long lost sense of community spirit.

"We were all like one big family. That feeling of community had been lost in this day and age and that's very sad."

Simon appears in the first four episodes. By the 1960s blacksmiths had disappeared from British high streets, but Simon stresses his is not a profession under threat.

"People are under the illusion these arts are dying out. But I specialise in things like making tools for traditional craftsmen and we have to be good at what we do."

Tempting, tasty treats at TIC for Dorset Food Week

Trying the many goodies on offer at the food tasting event

By Anita Harries

As part of Dorset Food Week, the Tourist Information Centre in Dorchester held a food tasting event, allowing people to try the very best of food produced across the county.

As well as food tastings, there were cookery demonstrations, competitions and information stands.

Michelin star chef Russell Brown from Sienna made butternut squash tortellinis, just a sample of the food he serves up in his restaurant.

Among the foods to be savoured were Dorchester Chocolates, Moores biscuits, Dorset Cereals, Woolsery cheese, and sausages from Eggardon Rare Breeds among many other delicious treats.

And of course the ladies from Dorchester Country Market were on hand to tempt visitors with their delicious homemade cakes.

A treasure hunt had also been been cleverly devised to raise money for the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance, offering all manner of foods and food related products to prise a pound from passers by.

Teachers set off for Antarctica

FOUR Dorchester teachers have left to begin their trip to Antarctica to do science projects which will involve their students throughout the expedition through website blogs on www.fuchsfoundation.org and satellite phone calls.

The expedition is supported and arranged by the Fuchs Foundation, an educational charity set up in recognition of Sir Vivian Fuchs's achievements through the Trans-Antarctic Commonwealth Expedition 1957/8 and as the first Director of the British Antarctic Survey.

One of the four, Lyndsay Hilton, Head of Chemistry at The Thomas Hardye School, will study nanoparticles which can only be seen through a high powered microscope, in relation to glaciers and clothing. New research has found that the glaciers in Antarctica may contain nanoparticles of iron oxide which may be able to slow global warming.

Through the warming process causing glaciers and icebergs to melt, the iron oxide will be leached into the ocean and boost the growth of phytoplankton and as they photosynthesise they will remove more carbon dioxide from the atmosphere which could slow global warming.

Lyndsay will also test "self cleaning trousers" and "socks that will never smell no matter how long you wear them" which also contain nanoparticles that have been engineered to produce clothing with special properties.

In addition the team will be carrying out a project to provide ground truth data for the European Space Agency's (ESA) CryoSat satellite.

CryoSat is specifically looking at mapping ice coverage over land and sea in the Polar Regions. The area to which the expedition will be travelling gives ESA a unique opportunity to collect in situ ice measurements to help calibrate the instrumentation on board the satellite.

CryoSat's flight path will be altered to record data on the ice thickness at the exact location of the expedition.

This expedition is the third of a series of scientific expeditions to be sent by the Foundation to the Polar Regions. The previous two were to the Antarctic in 2007 and the Arctic in 2009.

Dorset's pledge to children in care

A COUNCIL made up of young people have helped the county council revise its 27 point policy on children in care and care leavers.

A pledge of promises to children and young people in care has been signed by Dorset County Council promising to do its best to ensure the happiness, welfare and future opportunities of children in its care.

The Children in Care Council - known as 'Dorset Kidz: Stand Up Speak Up' - will be ensuring DCC honours its commitment to children in care and care leavers across the county.

Toni Coombs, DCC's cabinet member for children's services and chair of the corporate parenting panel, said: "Through no fault of their own, children in care have not had the family support that many of us take for granted.

"We become their parents and have a duty to make sure they have support and opportunities to achieve the most out of their lives.

"This pledge is our commitment to them and I'm delighted that young people in care helped us write it, as we know it focuses on what matters to them."

The county council produced its first pledge in 2007. The recently revised pledge includes: help children and young people have a secure and stable home; listen to the wishes and views of children and young people; help them stay in touch with friends and family where it is safe and give them all the support they need to make a success of moving from care into adult life.

The pledge has been sent to all children and young people in care, care leavers, social workers and other professionals, plus county councillors.

Don't forget your compost bins this winter!

WITH winter just around the corner Dorset County Council are reminding residents to continue using their compost bins during the colder months.

Robert Gould, Dorset County Council's cabinet member for the environment, said: "Home composting is easy to do all year round. Autumn is an excellent time of year as there is a great deal of nutrient-rich waste available - old bedding plants, grass cuttings, autumn leaves and prunings can all be composted.

"It is an inexpensive, natural process which is much better for the environment than sending uncooked kitchen and garden waste to landfill.

"It currently costs the county council around £70 for each tonne of waste sent to landfill and this is set to rise dramatically over the next few years."

Top tips to keep composting this autumn are:

- Use a lawnmower to pick leaves up: This shreds the leaves and helps the composting process;
- Help next year's plants grow by making use of this year's tired vegetation: Adding old bedding plants to your compost mix will help to capture all the nutrients and will give new plants a great start when you wake the garden back up in the spring.
- Bring the inside, outside! A third of household waste can be composted at home; anything from loo roll tubes and egg boxes to coffee grounds and tea leaves can all go in your compost bin
- Make your compost mixture more a-peel-ing: Don't forget to regularly add suitable kitchen waste to your compost.

To produce good compost, the key is to get the correct balance of materials as air is essential to the process.

By mixing the material up, as you fill your bin, this creates air pockets and helps to keep it healthy.

Try and aim for a 50/50 mix of 'greens' (vegetable peelings, grass cuttings, old flowers and bedding plants) and 'browns' (garden prunings, coffee grounds, tissues and paper napkins, cardboard, vacuum cleaner dust). It is best not to overfill it.

For those that are not already home composting there has never been a better time to get started.

Dorset councils have teamed up with bin manufacturer Straight PLC to provide a range of compost bins, kitchen caddies and water butts at bargain prices.

For more information see www.dorset.getcomposting.com or call Straight PLC on 0844 5714444.

Six positives for a better life

1. Change the thought – Change the outcome: This is the starting point, re-programming your brain by replacing an unhelpful negative thought or belief with a new positive one. Use your imagination to visualize or 'show' your brain what you want. The power of the mind cannot be over-estimated!

2. Find reasons to say "yes": "I would love to but...." here comes the negative reason why you can't! It can be a really positive experience to just say yes, if it is possible & what you want, then try to find ways that will allow you the opportunity, maybe you need others to persuade you, take control & decide for yourself!

3. Don't just do what you did last year: Repeating what you always do will bring you the same outcome unless others change & this is not in your control. So if you didn't like all that happened last year make plans & set new goals, do something different!

4. Deal with difficult decisions now, not later: "Never put off until tomorrow what you can do today" We all know this but positive action is required to make it happen. Prioritize & do the difficult tasks first in the day so you have a clear focus for the rest of the day making you less stressed & more productive!

5. Self-belief starts with you: This is an empowering way of taking more control in your life rather than relying on others to make you feel good. Do something fun or caring for yourself today!

6. Renegotiate: Stuck with what you have always had & now want a change? Look at learning to develop & use your assertive skills, ask for what you want, discuss your changing needs, expectations with yourself & others to reach the deal that works for you!

START LIVING

1. START TO PUT YOURSELF FIRST: If you eat & drink healthily, schedule regular physical activity that you enjoy & manage your time effectively, you'll be in a better position to help others

2. START TO MAKE TIME TO RELAX & MENATLLY UNWIND Relaxation, breathing & meditation exercises have been proven to be effective in reducing stress & anxiety, they are ideal ways to switch off AND they boost your immune system. Just a few minutes a day will pay huge dividends

3. START TO PRIORITISE TASKS: There are only so many things we can do well during each day, so choose your top 3 most urgent tasks each morning and make them your priority. Reschedule, renegotiate your commitments or delegate – you can make it happen!

4. START TO EMPATHISE WITH OTHERS: There are many different behaviour styles that affect how we communicate with each other. Be aware that different people can perceive your words & actions in a way you didn't always intend. Take time to listen to others & look for solutions.

STOP STRESSING

1. STOP IGNORING YOUR NEEDS: Know what is expected of you and what is reasonable. Take short breaks throughout the day & know when and how to say 'No' both at work & home

2. STOP GETTING DISTRACTED: If you're experiencing too much pressure or just have a lot going on in your life, staying focused isn't easy. It may help to ask for support from colleagues or friends & prioritise urgent, important & non-urgent tasks

3. STOP ALLOWING OTHERS TO MAKE YOU FEEL INFERIOR: The key to stress-free living is to accept yourself for exactly who you are today, including past mistakes and things you might not be so proud of. Work on your self-belief and confidence and just go for it!

4. STOP BEING JUDGMENTAL: Try to adopt a more flexible thinking style which will improve your mental well-being, whilst reducing unnecessary pressure for both you and those around you. Practice being objective and understanding.

Solar Photovoltaic electricity. Being Green has never been so rewarding

Readers may well have noticed the strange additions to some roofs in the area, What are these panels that seem to be fixed to the roofs?, are people turning their lofts into green- houses? Well the chances are, that they are either Solar Thermal panels to produce hot water, or Solar Photo voltaic panels, which produce electricity. So what is it all about and why are people having them fitted.

Having a solar photo voltaic system installed means that It is realistic to be able to generate around 40% of your total electricity requirements, that is a big saving, especially as the cost of electricity is likely to increase over the coming years. Couple this saving with the money that you can earn due to the government backed feed in tariff scheme (FIT's). The feed in tariff scheme means that customers actually get paid for generating their own electricity. For a system installed on an existing building in a domestic situation, the owner of the equipment can look forward to being paid 41.3 pence for every unit of electricity that they generate, whether they use it themselves or not. A unit of electricity means 1 kilowatt hour. Using a 1 kW heater for 1 hour would use 1 kW hour (1 unit) or using a 3kW kettle for 20 minutes would use the same 1 kW hour (1 unit) To buy a unit of electricity from your electricity supplier typically costs between 11 and 14 pence, depending on your supplier and tariff. The feed in tariff is only payable to customers who used a micro generation certification scheme (MCS) registered installer.

The feed in tariff scheme pays 41.3p per unit generated whether the customer uses the electricity or not, so if you generated the unit and use it yourself you would get the 41.3p and you would save a further 11 -14p because you did not need to buy the electricity from your supplier. There is also an added bonus in that any electricity that you generate but don't use, gets sold back to your supplier for an extra 3pence per unit.

Because the feed in tariff scheme has been guaranteed for 25 years, and it is indexed linked to ensure that the returns remain the same in line with inflation, it can make the system a worthwhile long term investment, where the cost of installation can be recovered still leaving many years of pure profit. The investment opportunity has caused quite a stir in the financial sector with favourable comments from people such as Martin Lewis 'The money saving expert'. The technology is not in-expensive and a large system could cost as much as a family car. However most family cars won't last for 25 years and give a life time return of up to 3 times their initial cost.

This type of technology involves having a series of panels (known as modules) typically fitted to your roof. The modules convert the energy from sun light into electricity in a d.c.(direct current) form, which is then fed through an inverter to convert it to a.c (alternating current) and then into your consumer unit or fuse board to power your electrical devices.

The technology works best if your roof is South facing, but worthwhile energy can still be produced from East and West facing roofs. Again the systems work best in bright sunshine, but even on a cloudy day, energy will still be produced. The larger the kW rating of your system, the more energy you can produce.

The South West of the UK is the best location in the Country for this type of technology, so the residents of Dorset have a great opportunity to take advantage of the feed in tariff scheme and actually get a financial reward for being green.

Healy Price limited is a Weymouth based company which has recently been enrolled into the micro generation certification scheme. The Company is currently the only MCS registered Photovoltaic installer based in Weymouth. Company Director Tim Healy told us that the registration process was very complex and included a rigorous inspection from the NICEIC MCS team, The MCS organisation only want quality installers to bear the MCS logo, so as to ensure that the customer ends up with the quality product that they deserve. Find out more at www.healyprice.com

A registered MCS installer will be able to discuss any requirements with you and provide you with information on systems that would be suitable for your property and what the likely energy production would be. Registered MCS installers will be part of a consumer protection code such as the renewable energy association REA, which should assure the customer that only honest and reliable information will be given.

Further information can be obtained from following sources www.energysavingtrust.org.uk www.realassurance.org.uk www.microgenerationcertification.org

Cultural celebration for Black History Month

MAYOR Leslie Phillips joins Natasha Player for a spot of African dance

By Anita Harries

THE South West Dorset Multi Cultural Network held their annual celebration of Black History Month at the Corn Exchange.

In a relaxed and friendly atmosphere, there was plenty for people of all ages, places and backgrounds to do.

With the Mayor of Dorchester, Councillor Leslie Phillips, in attendance, the Corn Exchange was packed with stalls and displays.

As well as a Gurkhas exhibition, there was a wealth of information available on the Dorset History Centre, Dorset's Hidden Histories, the Dorset Race Equality Centre, the British Red Cross, and Magna Housing Association among others.

There was also the chance to buy some of the beautiful jewellery made by single mothers in Kenya as part of the Dorset-Murugi Community Projects.

Tea, coffee and cakes were available during the afternoon, and Caribbean food in the evening.

Family workshops gave plenty of opportunity to try something new.

Musician, composer, and storyteller Noah Messomo held both a drumming and a story-telling workshop.

The amazing Natasha Player brought her contemporary approach to African dance, encouraging people of all ages, including the mayor, to take part in her energetic and inspiring dance movements.

There was poetry by Louisa Parker, a talk by Dave Corbin entitled "London to Dorset – My Black Experiences", and a chance to share African inspired art with Pete Sheridan.

And an audience with highly acclaimed, award winning author Beverley Naidoo, writer of many novels set in South Africa, Kenya, Nigeria and Britain, was a fascinating experience.

This is a lady who has been imprisoned for her actions with the resistance movement in South Africa against apartheid.

The evening saw a whole range of first class entertainment.

Noah Messomo performed on a range of instruments, there was an African dance display by Natasha and Zubida Movements, and the wonderful free style rapping of Lil Dreads, a young hip hop artist with a big reputation.

The event culminated with two hours of music from Dub Educators, a UK Roots Reggae band consisting of five members all from Dorset, a superb way to end an excellent event which gave everyone a taste of multi cultural society.

On Saturday 20th November there is a one off chance to get funky and try dancing to live African music with Natasha Player.

This will take place at Dorchester Arts Centre from 2pm – 4pm, is open to anyone over the age of eight-years-old, all levels, and costs £8.

For booking and more information on 07799 677638.

EMMA Scott, David Aldwinckle, Anne-Marie Vincent and Mayor of Dorchester Councillor Leslie Phillips join hands for Black History Month

Creature Comforts Grooming Salon

CREATURE Comforts moves with the seasons, Do You? Look no further. Keep that fresh, clean summer feeling when greeted by your four legged best friend. Just because the summer has gone, doesn't mean the wet, damp smell of your dog's coat has to return too.

Autumn usually brings a lot of rain with it.... so instead of waiting till next summer to give your dog's coat a trim or remove matts and tangles. Book a clip, a nice fragranced bath, completed with a blow dry and nails trimmed. Keep your pet's coat and skin clean and parasite free to avoid unnecessary skin problems. If left untreated hair between the toes can develop into stone like knots which can cause lameness, dirty damp coats can result in wet eczema on the skin . We offer a discount for first time customers, a bespoke service to suit your request and advice on which grooming tools to maintain your dog's coat. For more information and friendly advice telephone our salon today we look forward to meeting you and your pet.

GS Footwear & Handbags

GS Footwear & Handbags is a family run business, which has been open for a year in Bridport high street, run by husband and wife Gary and Sarah with their daughter Emma helping to make up the team. GS Footwear & Handbags boasts a range of slippers, bags, scarves and jewellery for women.

GS Footwear & Handbags are offering something new to Nursing and Residential Homes – a slipper try and buy scheme. It is something they have trialled in Weymouth and have a few homes on board already.

They deliver a selection of the slippers they sell for guests to try and they will collect 48 hours later or as agreed and charge only for the slippers your guests need.

You can also specify any requirements such as Velcro, wide fit, washable ladies and men's etc and the size range and they will be dropped off.

If you have any questions or would like to take advantage of this free service offering quality slippers at sensible prices please contact GS Footwear & Handbags on 01308 424396 or visit their website on shoevillage.co.uk.

The shop is open Monday to Friday 9.30am – 4.30pm and Saturday 9.00am – 5.00pm. With Christmas creeping up on us or if you have a birthday present you need to buy why not pop in and see what they have to offer.

The Experience Bridport & West Bay feature appears in all five West Dorset titles highlighting the fantastic range of independent traders.
Advertisers are also invited to submit a business write up and photo.
If you would like to promote your Bridport or West Bay business please call Natalie on 01297 446145 or e-mail natalie@pemedia.co.uk

Bridport Mortgage Centre

Bridport Mortgage Centre is the only totally Independent Mortgage Brokers in Bridport. Run by Phill and Sue Morris, with over 25 years industry experience and knowledge.

They offer a professional and friendly, personal service to their clients – whether first time buyers, re-mortgaging or raising capital out of their property. Their Motto is 'Mortgages made easy' and they can help take the hard work out of looking for a mortgage.

Most people start by putting their property on the market and then look for a new home, which is fine but they would recommend that you should establish how much you can afford to borrow, before you go house hunting. This way you can avoid any disappointments and have a clear idea of the property range you can comfortably afford as well as having an agreement in principal available for when you make an offer.

As well as mortgages they also offer various insurances, such as, Buildings & Contents, Life, Critical illness and Mortgage Payment Protection insurance, as well as commercial and liability insurances.

With new interest rates coming in all the time, like the new 2.75% fixed for 2 years available on both purchases and re-mortgages, so pop in or call for an appointment today on 01308 423457.

Why the Legion is Mark's personal favourite charity

GUNNER Mark Stonelake, of 29 Commando Regiment, Royal Artillery, had his left leg amputated in December 2008 in Afghanistan, when the vehicle he was driving hit a roadside bomb.

As well as losing a leg, the blast also left him with a badly damaged right foot, fractured back, broken bones in both legs and broken nose, jaw and teeth.

A friend and colleague also in the vehicle at the time has been left permanently brain-damaged by the incident, and has to communicate through a computer.

Mark is still serving in the British Armed Forces, along with his fiancée Donna Canty, an Able Seaman in the Royal Navy.

He is one of the first wounded soldiers to have benefited from the Battle Back programme whilst receiving treatment at Headley Court, after he took to the skies in a glider whilst still recovering from the IED blast.

MARK Stonelake as he appears in this year's poster campaign to encourage people to support the Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal.

The Royal British Legion has committed the funding to build, equip and operate the Battle Back Challenge Centre (BBCC) and Personnel Recovery Centres (PRCs), part of the MoD's Personnel Recovery Capability, which will be designed for rehabilitating injured Service personnel through the medium of sports and adventurous training.

Mark recently took part in the Sail4Heroes fundraiser, sailing from Plymouth to London, in order to raise money for the Royal British Legion and is also a member of the Legion.

The Legion is funding necessary home adaptations to Mark's home, in order to make it easier for him to carry out essential everyday activities. Adaptations will include building an extension to the house to have a wet room.

"The Royal British Legion is my personal favourite charity, and the people at the Legion down in Devon are helping me while I'm in the Army, but I know that help will continue, should myself or my family need it if I leave the Army," he says.

Mark appears in the Legion's 2010 Poppy Appeal poster campaign and TV commercial. He lives in Devon with his fiancée Donna and their nine month old daughter, Grace.

... for your well-being

In my work I help people to develop an understanding of their own well being, which is fundamental to our overall health. By strengthening this mind/body connection you can relieve stress, strengthen your body's ability to stay well, and experience more joy in life.

I have practiced yoga for most of my life and been a yoga teacher for many years. I also trained in Aromatherapy, Body Massage and Beauty Treatments, and ran my own salons in Hampshire. My new treatment room is set in a beautiful location, under Lambert's Castle with stunning views over the Marshwood Vale. The peace and tranquillity here enhances the opportunity for you to de-stress and to relax, and so deepens the healing effects of the treatments.

'Lovegrove Essentials' is a range of hand-made natural skin and body care products, made locally for me from high-quality ingredients, free from chemical additives. I use these, as well as other high-quality brands to compliment the beauty treatments. So even something as simple as a manicure can enhance relaxation and deepen a client's sense of well-being.

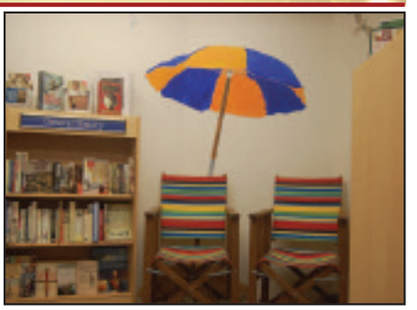

Appointments are available on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. You are welcome to come alone or have a shared appointment. It's also a lovely place to take time out for a walk and enjoy the scenery. Telephone: 07971 434336 Web site: www.lovegroveessentials.com. Email: hannah@hannahlovegrove.co.uk.

The importance of color in Interior Design

ALTHOUGH there's no hard and fast science that says everyone will react in a certain way to a certain color, there is something very real about the psychology of color and no doubt that certain colors tend to elicit certain emotions, moods, and even physical feelings. Because of this impact choosing the right colors for your interior design scheme is about so much more than just which swatches and samples you think look pretty together.

Warm vs Cool

Colors are divided into two groups: warm and cool. Reds, yellows, and shades of orange are warm colors and are known to stimulate and excite, while blues, greens, and purples are cool colors because they have a relaxing and calming affect. In general warm colors work well in places where there should be activity and interaction, like the kitchen and living room, and cool colors are most appreciated in rooms where the aim is relaxation and calmness, like the bedroom and bathroom.

That's not to say you can't mix things up and put a relaxing color somewhere busy -- my mom has green in her living room and it's still the lively hub of the house, although I do find the walls relaxing to look at. Here are some basics about each of the major color groups:

Red is the most emotionally intense of all the colors and is known to raise the heart rate, increase blood pressure, and speed up breathing. It draws the eye so is often used for accents only, although because it also stimulates the appetite it can be a good choice for the walls of a formal dining room (and restaurants).

Yellow speeds the metabolism, enhances concentration, and inspires optimism and happiness. If over-used, however, it can become too stimulating and can instead lead people to become tense and crabby.

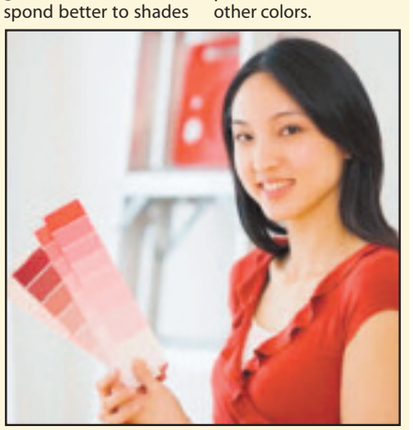

Blue One of the most popular "favorite" colors, blue has the opposite effect of red: it calms, relaxes, inspires tranquility, and suppresses appetite. The downside of blue is that it can come off as cold or depressing. Blue is often used in bedrooms and studies.

Green is similar to blue but more versatile. It does not suppress appetite (perhaps because so many foods in nature are green) and in its lighter shades can be both cheerful and relaxing.

Violet is one of the most unpredictable colors in that people react unpredictably to it. It can seem artificial and intense, or very romantic and sophisticated. In general children respond better to shades of purple than adults.

White is bright, fresh, and neutral so it goes with everything. White enhances natural light and makes things appear clean. Too much white, however, can become stark and sterile.

Brown is earthy, warm, and calming. It implies feelings of thickness and strength and pairs well with most other colors.

Making the most of light

Maximizing the use of natural light is probably the answer to countering a wide range of problems. The new wave of Solatube light pipes enables both homeowners and businesses, to enjoy the benefits of natural lighting without the drawbacks.

Light is a very important design element for home and office buildings. Studies show that when people live and work in a well lit environment, they are happier, healthier and more productive. Today, "day-lighting" is an international trend. Natural light lifts spirits, makes spaces appear larger and lessens demands on electricity, an important factor in today's energy–conscious world. Natural light also has been shown to reduce eye-strain, increase productivity and even decrease absenteeism in the workplace. People function better in light filled environments.

Solatube light pipes require no planning permission and are straightforward to install from around £499 To find out more contact approved Solatube installers CommonSense on 01460 61824 light@commonsenseuk.co.uk.

MAKING your own cushions is a fantastic way to recycle old materials for a new, functional purpose. If you need replacement cushions, or are thinking up a new interior design scheme, why not opt for making your own bespoke cushions?

Getting Started

If you want to learn to make your own cushions, a simple square cushion is the easiest way to get started. But just because it's simple doesn't mean it can't be beautiful. You have design choices even with square cushions. You cushion can be enhanced with standard piping, ruched trim, appliqué designs, even tassels and fringing.

Foam for the inside of your cushion is available in a range of pre-measured sizes.

Cushion Making Instructions

Here are the steps to make your own cushions:

1. To make the cover, begin by measuring the foam pad. Add an inch to each measurement. This will give you a half-inch allowance on all sides.

2. Cut two pieces of fabric to these measurements. This will give you two identical square pieces of fabric.

3. Pin the two pieces of fabric together, making sure that the finished side of both pieces is facing in. In other words, you are assembling the cover "inside out."

4. Sew around three edges and all four corners, but leave one edge open.

5. Now, turn the fabric "right side out" and insert the foam.

6. Turn under the edges of the opening to match the other edges and slip-stitch (a slipstitch is a concealed stitch used for sewing folded edges).

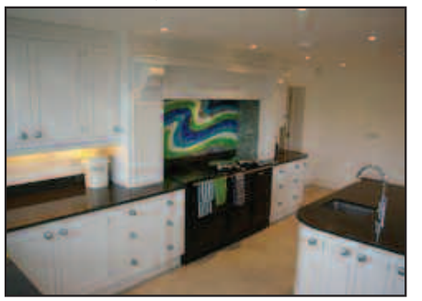

7. Now you can add embellishments like piping or fringe if you wish. Other options include adding a zipper or leaving an opening so you can remove the cushion cover for cleaning.

Once you master this simple type of cushion, you can branch out into other designs and techniques.

Dorset Kitchens

Dorset Kitchens have have been based in Bridport for the last 10 years. They have recently re-located to the Beaminster area, to new larger premises and showrooms. The company specialises in the making and fitting of hand-made solid wood kitchens, using materials from Pine to Oak to Beech. The company travels far and wide, both in the UK and into continental Europe. The business is familly run, with the emphasis very much focussed on the customer, the design and quality of products and service given. So, if you are contemplating having a new Kitchen, then call in and welcome the Kitchen of your dreams!

Expansion beckons for local legal partnership

Solicitors practice Austen Whetham & Guest , recognised for its professionalism is building on the expertise of its 3 resident partners and developing a network of legal consultants.

For over 100 years AWG has been providing high quality legal advice at a fair price. The firm's success is founded upon excellent knowledge in our chosen legal areas of practice.:-Family, Wills and Probate, Property, Civil Disputes. The firm works both locally and nationally. We take care to supervise and monitor the quality of work carried out on behalf of our clients.

Over the last few years we have expanded our work area into London, and across the South and South West England. This has led to the development of an innovative practice in which some of our solicitors are self employed consultants. We have a small central office in Bridport where our partners and staff continue to run the firm and support consultants who run their own practices.

We are therefore able to offer a bespoke professional service where home visits and out of hours appointments to our clients are the norm: Our partners are:- Scott Bowley lives between Charmouth and Bridport he undertakes Dispute resolution and property matters he can be contacted on 01308 422236.

Peter Alexander-who lived and worked for many years in London now lives near Bridport he undertakes matrimonial cases including high net worth clients he can be contacted on 01308 422236. Elizabeth West lives near Beaminster she undertakes property , wills and probate matters she can be contacted on 01308 422236.

We have recently appointed 2 consultants in the Dorchester and Weymouth and Portland area.

Gerald Duke lives near Dorchester and is well known in the area where he undertakes mainly commercial property and business matters please contact him on 01305 340100.

Stephen Peck lives near Bridport and is well know in the Dorchester and Weymouth and Portland areas where he provides advice on Wills, Living Wills, Lasting Powers of Attorney and Probates he too can be contacted on 01305 340100.

Scott Bowley a partner in Austen Whetham & Guest said:- "We are tremendously excited by the possibilities and challenges of this new development .

This enables us to offer accessible , flexible and expert legal advice to anyone requiring our services"

Bienvenue and Welcome to No 6 French Restaurant!

No 6 in Dorchester, Dorset, is a contemporary restaurant with a convivial atmosphere. Located in North Square this is "the" place to be seen in Dorchester. Offering a great range of locally sourced produce, French Chef Christian Lohez and his wife Sylwia welcome you to their outstanding restaurant, which is already very popular with the locals.

No 6 is just a stone's throw away from the town centre - come along, sip an aperitif with some juicy, marinated olives. Order your Buckland Newton venison steak, Lyme Bay king scallops or the freshly delivered Gurnard and indulge yourself with an exceptional dessert. Even, if you are in for a short lunch, there is plenty on the menu to get your taste buds going.

Freshness is the key to the ethos of the house and this is put into action through the daily changing blackboard. The unpretentious cuisine offers a menu that is simple but flavoursome and can be accompanied by a selected house wine or from the wine menu. Fish, meat or seafood, there is enough to satisfy the palate of even the most discerning Dorset connoisseur, but not enough days in the week to try all the offers on the board.

For more information please visit www.no6-restaurant.co.uk or call Christian and Sylwia on 01305 267679.

Looking good this Christmas

With the summer holidays out of the way, and the kids safely back in school many people's thoughts are already turning to Christmas and very soon you will start to receive the inevitable invitations to work parties, dances and social events.

With the party season in the not too distant future, and Christmas just 8 weeks away, it is never too early to start thinking about how you can lose weight before the festive period.

So you may be asking 'what hope do I have in reaching a healthier weight before Christmas after I've splurged whilst on holiday and over the summer months? And, what's more, if I do lose weight, how will I maintain it over the festive season?'

The answer lies in starting your weight-loss journey now, setting goals and rewards that will spur you on to your main goal - your ideal weight, and a healthier life.

Many overweight people dread the end of year parties and wearing shapeless clothes in order to cover up, but by taking action and doing something about your weight problem now you needn't stress about how you are going to look at this year's festive get-togethers.

Instead you can look forward to wearing a new little black dress or snappy suit and imagine just how shocked your family and friends will be when they see the new slim and healthy you, especially the ones that haven't seen you since last Christmas.

Celia Manville & Maggie Duarte are counsellor's for LighterLife, a weight-loss and weight-management programme designed for adults with one or more stone to lose. For further information and to book a free information session, call 07515 699 801 or visit www.lighterlife.com

The Fireplace - Still the heart of your home

As a crucial source of heat in your home, and with a huge range of styles to choose from, fires and fireplaces are once again at the top of the list of desirable features. A fireplace puts heart into a house, and flickering firelight provides a delightful ambience and a real focal point for your room.

Although traditionally constructed of heavy permanet materials, fireplaces needn't be forever. A carefully chosen fireplace provides a dramatic facelift; its installtion possibly taking no more than a day or two, and the total cost is worth every penny when you see the end result!

There are two main aspects to consider. The style and appearance of the fireplace itself and the fuel it will use. Fuel may be the traditional 'solid fuel', or perhaps you find gas or electricity more convenient. There is a vast choice of materials from which a new fireplace can be made. So put the heart back in your home - take a look at the wide range of ideas at Casterbridge Fires Ltd - from stoves to open fires, from wood to marble, from plain to fancy.

CHRISTMAS in Dorchester is a wonderful time of year and this year, the run up to Christmas will be even better than usual with even more reasons to do some of your Christmas shopping in the county town. We have a whole series of new initiatives in place to make your Christmas shopping a more relaxing and enjoyable experience.

With over 40 new shops that have come to Dorchester over the last 2 years, 80 per cent of which are specialist and independents giving you even more choice and variety than before for your Christmas shopping and now with our excellent parking facilities, you can take a relaxing break over a quick light lunch or a gourmet meal in one of the towns increasing number of fine eateries, recharge your batteries before resuming your shopping.

If you have a certain person that is always a struggle to buy for at Christmas, then Dorchester is your best bet - You have never seen so many gorgeous, unusual, stunning and some downright quirky gift ideas than are on display in the high street and tucked away down inviting alleys and arcades for you to explore. If there is a particular thing you are looking for, why not go to www.dorchesterdorset.com and try our product finder that will tell you which shops to visit or even use our free personal shopper service if you cant find what you are looking for and we will hunt for you!

Let RingGo melt away the stress

All the WDDC car parks in Dorchester have RingGo, pay by phone parking which, after a one-time registration (click the RingGo banner on line at www.dorchesterdorset.com or just dial the number on the P&D machine) With this innovative service, you can park, make a quick local call to park and then just head off into town. The normal rush back to your car when you have run out of parking time is a thing of the past, as 10 minutes before your parking is due to end, you get a text message inviting you to top up your parking time without having to return to your car BRILLIANT!

If you are having an evening meal or celebration night out with a few extra drinks, you can decide to leave you car in a Dorchester car park, take a taxi home and set your alarm for 7.55am, call RingGo and pay for parking until you can get back into town to retrieve your car!

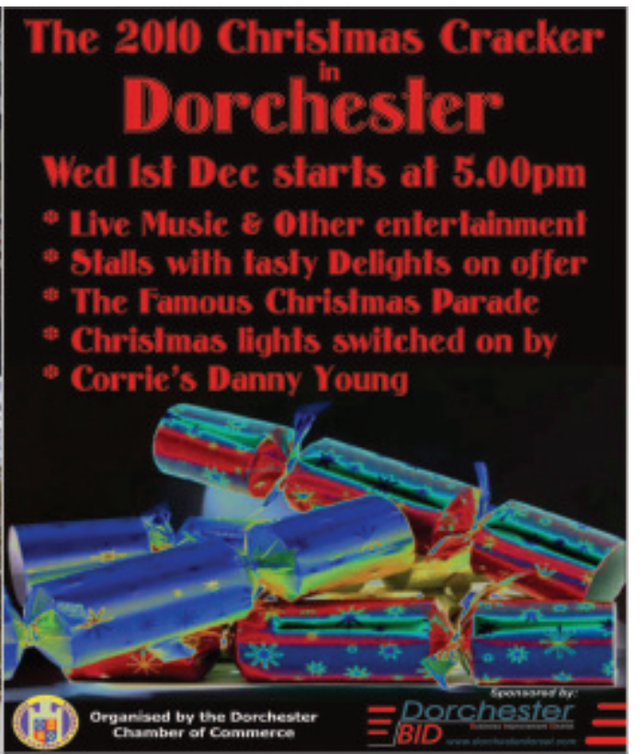

Free evening, overnight and Sunday parking

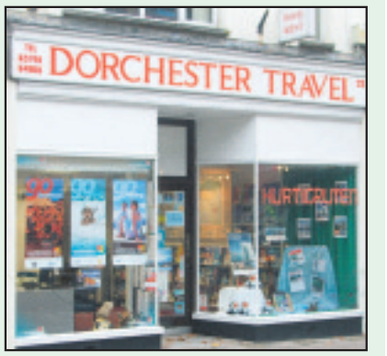

The Dorchester BID, with the support of the Chamber of commerce has persuaded WDDC to make car parks parking FREE after 6.00pm until 8.00am in the morning and even better, ALL DAY SUNDAY's from November the 1st for the next two years! Word is spreading fast amongst the business community, and so more and more shops and cafes etc. are starting to open on Sundays. Park and Ride from the car park next to the football stadium is another choice at just £1 per day including your round trip to town!!

Finally, in place early November, we can offer you up to 2 hours FREE PARKING in car parks anytime via a voucher on the back of your pay and display ticket. These vouchers are redeemable against qualifying purchases in participating shops. Some shops are even offering % discounts on higher value goods, so you can save money and park for free in Dorchester!

Best of British!

Afternoon tea at the Old Tea House' 'Bring back the traditional English tea time!'
'Relax and make time for tea'.

This is how Country Living Magazine described this teahouse built in 1635. Afternoon tea bridges the divide between young and old, everyone from small children to grandparents enjoys teatime.

The Ritz is unbeatable for its high teas and ambience, but our wonderful tea house is right here on your doorstep in Dorchester waiting to embrace and delight you with the most wonderful home made scones and tea time treats.

There are 2 or 3 tiers to the cake stands, with a selection of finger sandwiches, homemade cakes, eclairs and scones, with tea or freshly ground coffee. There is also teacakes, crumpets and homemade soups just waiting to be shared with you, with roast dinners and scrumptious puddings on Sunday.

Come along, relax and enjoy one of Dorsets most beautiful and most haunted tea rooms. A warm welcome awaits you so don't hesitate to revive this great British tradition of high, afternoon and cream teas. Best of British!

Literary Festival has plenty more to offer

WITH sell-out shows already under its belt, Bridport Literary Festival still has plenty more to offer with Marilyn Monroe, online religion, fish, sisters and Tolstoy all up for discussion.

Thursday brings us Sadie Jones and Melissa Jones at 11am, sisters who have both taken a literary career route and proved very successful. Hugh Warwick will be talking about our favourite prickly friends - the quintessential hedgehog at 2.30pm. In the evening, a moral debate: is there a relevant place for religion in our modern age of high technology? Charles Foster and Peter Owen-Jones will be in conversation at 6.30pm at the Arts Centre.

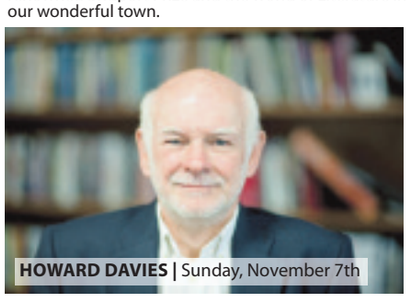

Luke Jennings, the Observer newspaper's dance critic, will be reminiscing about a youth spending wandering through streams and rivers in search of the perfect catch at 11am on Friday, November 5th. His new book, Blood Knots tell a tale of friends, fathers and fishing. At 2.30pm Anthony Sattin will be taking a trip down the Nile, accompanied by Florence Nightingale. Salley Vickers will be talking all things love: love given, love withheld, love craved and love lost. One of the nation's favourite fiction writers, she'lll be talking about the very thing that makes us human.

For the budding young readers, Angie Sage will be taking about her internationally acclaimed series Septimus Heap at 11am on Saturday, November 6th - books about an apprentice wizard who posses some rather special power. The novels are soon to be made into films so it's the perfect chance to meet the author of The Next Big Thing in young people's novels. Jane Rusbridge, winner of a Bridport Prize and author of this year's Big Read, will be in conversation at 11am with Tom Connolly about writing and publishing their debut novels. Jane will also be hosting a writing workshop in the afternoon, spaces still available. Daisy Goodwin has released her latest novel with a local twist for Dorset - the story of an American heiress brought to Lulworth Castle to marry an eligible bachelor, she'll be talking about it at 2.30pm.

Movie icon Marilyn Monroe had a life that could only happen in Hollywood and had it all played out in the tabloids. As part of the festival, Andrew O'Hagan will be talking about Marilyn's story, but with a twist. In November 1960 Frank Sinatra gave her a dog called Maf, and Maf the dog became a star in his own right. Marilyn died in 1962 and Maf was by her side throughout the last two years of her life. Andrew O'Hagan chronicles the time shared by the star and her devoted pooch, bringing a unique look at a life you might think you know. The talk takes place at Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, November 6th at 4pm and tickets cost £8. Following the talk, there will be a screening introduced by O'Hagan of 'The Misfits' - a film directed by John Huston and a script by Monroe's husband Arthur Miller, which won great critical acclaim and proved to be the last film Marilyn made.

The festivals comes to a rousing finish on Sunday with Howard Davies asking the big question - who is to blame for the financial crisis? The talk has already sold out, as has Rosamund Bartlett who will be revealing fascinating facts about Tolstoy, based on material only unearthed since the end of the Soviet Regime.

There is something for everyone at this year's Literary Festival - a chance to celebrate the internationally renowned Bridport Prize and the world of Literature in our wonderful town.

SEAN HUGHES FOR ELECTRIC COMEDY

NOVEMBER'S Electric Comedy show sees Perrier Award winner Sean Hughes come to the Electric Palace, Bridport.

Sean first burst on to the comedy scene winning comedy's highest accolade - The Perrier Award - at the time, Sean was the youngest ever winner of the award. Following this Sean became a household name with his very own show - 'Seans Show' and long running stint as team captain on Never Mind The Buzzcocks. With his trademark dark, explosive style and quick-fire audience banter, Sean Hughes makes an extremely welcome return to the Electric Palace with a headlining set full of his darkly brilliant, self-deprecating barbed wit.

Tickets for Sean Hughes on Thursday, November 25th cost £10.50 and are available from the box office on 01308 424901.

Electric Palace Awarded 'Special Price' for Met Opera Screening!

SINCE opening, the Electric Palace has worked hard to stay true to its ethos of a mixed programme of 'entertainment for all' to include something for everyone.

Their latest project of bringing the Met Opera Live to Bridport is a very brave piece of programming and shows a true loyalty to Bridport and its commitment to bring culture to places that so often get left out. Having the Met Opera in a rural location is pretty much unheard of as it is only usually city cinemas that benefit.

However, the Palace has felt uneasy that the standard ticket price of £22.50 has prevented some people from attending and have contacted the Met Opera in New York to request a 'special price' for this season to enable more local people to attend and enjoy some marvellous productions.

The Electric Palace are delighted to announce that the Met Opera have kindly agreed to their 'Special Price' request of Standard Tickets for just £14.50 (saving of £8.00) Member Ticket for just £12.50 (saving of £6.00) and Premium Ticket to include a 2 course dinner for just £28.50 (saving of £8.00) under 25s remain the same at £10.00.

If you've never seen opera before then now is your chance! Don't be shy - take advantage of having the finest opera in the world at your local cinema with Donizetti's Don Pasquale, Verdi's Don Carlo and Puccini's La Fanciulla del West all included in the new season.

Tickets on sale now from Bridport Tourist Info Centre on 01308 424901 for full season listings see the Electric Palace website www.electricpalace.org.uk

Thomas Hardy on Stage at Dorset County Museum

DR Keith Wilson, author of Thomas Hardy on Stage and Professor and former Chair of English at the University of Ottawa, is coming to Dorset County Museum.

On Thursday, November 4th Dr Wilson will give a talk in conjunction with the current exhibition Thomas Hardy on Stage and Screen. The talk will start at 7.30pm.

This internationally-renowned expert will discuss Hardy's relationship with the stage and the importance of the Hardy Players in Dorchester. Tickets cost £5 and are available now from Museum Reception.

Come along to learn more about Dorset's favourite writer and take the opportunity to see the exhibition which traces the development of the Hardy Players and the production of their plays in Dorchester, Weymouth and London.

The exhibition also features costumes, posters, photographs and film clips displayed alongside long-lost footage of some of the earliest of Hardy film adaptations.

The exhibition runs until December 11th 2010.

'Top' tribute act head to the Halls

ZZ TOPS is the unique three man tribute to rock music's best known Texan boogie band, and they're in Lyme next week (Friday, November 12th) to "tear the house down!"

There latest tour features more tone, taste and tenacity than ever before. The show comes complete with their real beards, the crazy guitars, all the moves and over two hours of hot rodded rock 'n' roll.

All eras of ZZ Top are included in the same show, in two very individual sets. Nik Ryan (Billy Bigguns) portrays the legendary front man, Billy Gibbons, in his looks and his playing, incorporating superb tone, style and feel with a sense of humour as he rocks his way through the show, getting the crowd on their feet as well as tearin' it up!

Meanwhile, the hillbilly cowboy antics of Dusty Hill on bass guitar are faithfully reproduced by Col Gray who nails the sound and unique vocal style of 'The Dust' whilst holdin' down the lowdown and turning every venue into one hell of a house party!

The Lil' Ol' Band From Devon tour will see the band performing in theatres, art centres, festivals and established rock venues in the UK and Europe, giving fans of all ages and backgrounds the opportunity to experience the bands entertaining, authentic and dynamic full on ZZ Top show.

Packing the classics like 'Gimme All your Lovin,' 'Sharp Dressed Man,' 'Legs,' 'Tush,' 'LaGrange,' 'Rough Boy' and many more into a two hour plus rock extravaganza and throwing in a few surprises for hardcore (and not so hardcore) fans to savour !

As any ZZ fan will tell you, there is only one ZZ Top. And as any ZZ TOPS fan will tell you, there is only one complete ZZ TOP show - and thats THE ZZ TOPS !

THE ZZ TOPS are: Nik Ryan (Rev Billy Bigguns) – Vocals/Fuzzy Guitar, Col Gray (Dusty Thrills) - Vocals/Bass Guitar and Matt Jones (Franks Weird) - Drums.

Tickets for next Friday's show cost £11 in advance (available from the Tourist Information Centre on 01297 442138) or £13 on the door. The bar opens at 7:30pm.

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

FROM her Calendar of Sonnets (published in America in 1886) this is Helen Jackson's verse for November.

NOVEMBER

This is the treacherous month when autumn days
With summer's voice come bearing summer's gifts.
Beguiled, the pale down-trodden aster lifts
Her head and blooms again. The soft, warm haze
Makes moist once more the sere and dusty ways,
And, creeping through where dead leaves lie in drifts,
The violet returns. Snow noiseless sifts
Ere night, an icy shroud, which morning's rays
Will idly shine upon and slowly melt,
Too late to bid the violet live again.
The treachery, at last, too late, is plain;
Bare are the places where the sweet flowers dwelt.
What joy sufficient hath November felt?
What profit from the violet's day of pain?

AS we approach the 92nd anniversary of Armistice Day it is an appropriate time to have a poem written by a soldier. Some time ago I visited a regimental website and found these comments: "It's the Military, not the reporter who has given us the freedom of the Press. It's the Military, not the poet who has given us the freedom of speech. It's the Military, not the politicians that ensures our right to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness. It's the Military, that salutes the flag, that serves beneath it, whose coffins are draped by it." On the same website was this poem, written by an unknown soldier.

THE FINAL INSPECTION

The soldier stood and faced his God,
Which must always come to pass.
He hoped his shoes were shining,
Just as brightly as his brass.

'Step forward now, you soldier,
How shall I deal with you?
Have you always turned the other cheek?
To My Church have you been true?'

The soldier squared his shoulders and said,
'No, Lord, I guess I ain't
Because those of us who carry guns,
Can't always be a saint.

I've had to work most Sundays,
And at times my talk was tough.
And sometimes I've been violent,
Because the world is awful rough.

But, I never took a penny,
That wasn't mine to keep...
Though I worked a lot of overtime,
When the bills got just too steep.

And I never passed a cry for help,
Though at times I shook with fear.
And sometimes, God, forgive me,
I've wept unmanly tears.

I know I don't deserve a place,
Among the people here.
They never wanted me around,
Except to calm their fears.

If you've a place for me here, Lord,
It needn't be so grand.
I never expected or had too much,
But if you don't, I'll understand.

There was a silence all around the throne,
Where the saints had often trod.
As the soldier waited quietly,
For the judgment of his God.

'Step forward now, you soldier,
You've borne your burdens well.
Walk peacefully on Heaven's streets;
You've done your time in Hell.'

A song 'To Help Them'

Local band Wise Intentions release charity single

A BAND of teenage brothers are proving they have noble intentions after releasing a charity single they wrote, recorded and released themselves.

Under the moniker of Wise Intentions the three siblings are hoping to raise funds and the profile of charity Shelterbox by donating all the profits from their specially written single.

Brothers Robert, Reece and Tommy James have been playing the east Devon circuit for the past 18 months under their professional names Scott, Grant and Blake Valor.

The single "To Help Them" has been officially recognised by Shelterbox and is available from iTunes and Amazon to download for 79p.

Drummer Blake, 17, who only started playing when his brothers needed another musician, said: "The thing about shelterbox is they are really quick and proactive in helping people anywhere around the world.

"They don't really promote themselves as much as others and are self sufficient so rely on donations, so without people's supporting them with donations they cannot do what they do."

Keyboardist and Former Woodroffe student Grant,18, added: "We knew people who were in Malaysia during the tsunami in 2004 and there was a time when we didn't know if they were alright, so I suppose that was in the back of our minds, when we thought of Shelterbox because they helped so much during that disaster.

"With them not being so well known we thought we could help promote them."

Guitarist and lead singer Scott, 15, began writing the lyrics to the song, to help raise people's awareness.

The Woodroffe pupil said: "The thing with the song I like is the fact it seems to relate so well to Shelterbox and their work during natural disasters, which puts more meaning behind the song.

"When you see natural disasters a lot of the time you are seeing it from a distance, so hopefully this song will make you think about it a bit more about what's going on."

The band, who have already written 70 songs, will be playing live at Illminster's Crown Inn on November 26th.

For more information on the band visit www.wiseintentions.com.

PHILIP CLOUTS PLAYS THE JAZZ CAFÉ

BRIDPORT Arts Centre's November Jazz Café will feature Philip Clouts, South African born but local-based jazz pianist.

Philip Clouts is widely recognised for his work as part of the Philip Clouts Trio and the Philip Clouts Quartet, and perhaps best known for his work with the seven-piece world-beat jazz band Zubop who have played at WOMAD and Glastonbury festivals.

Born in South Africa, Clouts moved to Britain at a young age and is now based in Dorset and his latest album is inspired by the beauty of the coastline around the area.

Come and enjoy an evening of soulful songs, perhaps bring yours voice and instrument and join in for the jam session as part of the evening. Admission is £6 and available from the Bridport Arts Centre box office on 01308 424204.

Jazz Café featuring Philip Clouts takes place on November 12th at 8pm at Bridport Arts Centre. Telephone 01308 424204 for tickets or more details.

Levellers for acoustic set and cd signing

ON Wednesday, November 10th, the day of their sell out gig at the Electric Palace, Mark and Simon of The Levellers will be making a guest appearance at Bridport Music, a local independent music shop, at 1pm to sign CDs and play a couple of songs from their reissued album 'A Weapon Called The Word'

The gig at the Electric Palace sold out in record speed, proving that the Levellers still hold their top position as one of the UKs most popular touring bands. The appearance at Bridport Music will no doubt be extremely popular and attract a large crowd (especially as so many people were unable to buy tickets for the evening gig).

INBETWEENERS STARS IN NEW WAR SITCOM

ALAN PARTRIDGE RETURNS | Alan Partridge is returning with a new show - and Billie Piper finds herself at the wrong end of one of the radio host's quips.

The gaffe-prone DJ, played by Steve Coogan, stars in a one-off online series showing his antics on his new radio show Mid Morning Matters.

In the first of 12 11-minute episodes, Alan - who is assisted by younger DJ Simon (played by comedian Tim Key), with whom he claims to have "great banter" - tells his North Norfolk Digital listeners: "I like her face. She has a very round cherubic face, rather like a Victorian doll that's somehow been re-animated.

"Say what you like about Billie Piper - but she is the most popular prostitute on ITV."

In another episode, Alan hosts a phone-in to find the greatest ever person from Norfolk, with Horatio Nelson challenged by Delia Smith.

Other episodes include Alan confronting an Alan Partridge imposter on Twitter, and in another, Alan - who is waiting for guest Anthea Turner - meets a man campaigning to reduce childhood obesity through cycling.

The shows - written by original creator Armando Iannucci - will appear on www.fostersfunny.co.uk from Friday, November 5th.

AHA! | Steve Coogan's Alan Partridge returns for an online special

INBETWEENERS STARS 'CHICKENS' | Two of the stars of cult comedy The Inbetweeners are to appear in a new sitcom set during World War One.

Simon Bird and Joe Thomas have co-written and will star in Chickens on Channel4 along with Jonny Sweet.

They will play three young men who are left behind while their contemporaries are fighting on the Western Front.

The trio are branded cowards as they struggle to impress the women left on the home front.

Bird, who plays straight-laced Will in The Inbetweeners, said: "We're really excited to be working with Channel 4 on our first sitcom. It's a dream come true for us and we can't wait to get started."

CHICKENS | Jonny Sweet, Simon Bird and Joe Thomas

DERMOT'S POKERFACE | Dermot O'Leary has admitted he finds it difficult keeping straight-faced when he's backstage watching X Factor auditions.

The presenter looks on at the auditions with the contestant's family and friends, who are often oblivious to the lack of talent on stage.

Speaking on Thursday night's episode of A League Of Their Own on Sky1, Dermot said: "(It's) really really awkward. The strangest thing is when you turn to the mum or dad as if to go 'what do you think?' because you can't really go 'they're rubbish'.

"So you turn to the mum and dad and say 'so what do you think?' and then they say 'they are brilliant.' You've just got to keep the poker face."

He went on: "The show only works if you abide by anyone can win it. The lovely thing is every now and then you get a shock as someone who looks a bit strange comes on but has the voice of an angel ... a SuBo moment."

Weymouth Choral Society concert

WEYMOUTH Choral society and Wessex Sinfonia come together for a concert performing St John Passion by J S Bach on Saturday, November 5th in Holy Trinity Church, Weymouth at 7.30 pm. Joining Weymouth Choral and the Wessex Sinfonia are soloists; Jonathan Grey (Tenor –The Evangelist), Abbi Temple (Soprano), Jane Stevenson (Alto), Brian Parsons (Tenor), Roger Hewetson (Bass) and Tim Nelson (Bass)

Weymouth Choral Society

This tremendous work explores the dramatic potential of the story of Christ's betrayal, arrest, trial and crucifixion. Bach uses the narrative of the Evangelist's recitative to unfold the story, which is punctuated by interjections from other characters and the use of the chorus to represent the yelling of the mob! There is also an element of reflection, with the use of chorales (harmonized Lutheran hymn tunes) from the chorus, providing moments to pause and consider the meaning of the dramatic events as they unfold. With the musical intricacies of the solo arias entwined throughout the work, Bach presents strikingly contrasting styles of writing which collectively form a true masterpiece.

Tickets are £8 (free to under 16s) and are available at Weymouth TIC, on the door or phone 01305 775644, via email: weymouthchoral@btinternet.com or visit the website: www.weymouthchoralsociety.org.uk.

The Nutcracker

IT'S that season again… dancing snowflakes, a dashing prince, colourfully costumed nutcrackers, and Tchaikovsky's majestic music!

The Nutcracker remains one of the world's most beloved ballets during the Christmas season telling the story of one Christmas Eve, when young Clara creeps downstairs for one of her presents, but instead finds herself at the start of a night of magical adventures as the Christmas tree magically grows and the toy soldiers come to life to fight the Mouse King!

Through it all, Tchaikovsky's music is some of the most instantly memorable of all ballet, with a wealth of famous melodies including the Sugar Plum Fairy.

A real treat for the whole family, The Nutcracker will be screened LIVE from the Bolshoi Theatre in Moscow to the Electric Palace, Bridport on Sunday, December 19th. Tickets are on sale now - Adult £10.50 / Children £5.50 / Family Ticket £25 from Bridport Tourist Information Centre on 01308 424901.

LAUGHS BY THE MILE IN DUE DATE

FROM director Todd Phillips, Due Date [15] stars Robert Downey Jr. and Zach Galifianakis as two unlikely companions who are thrown together on a road trip that turns out to be as life-changing as it is outrageous.

Downey plays Peter Highman, an expectant first-time father whose wife's due date is a mere five days away. As Peter hurries to catch a flight home from Atlanta to be at her side for the birth, his best intentions go completely awry when a chance encounter with aspiring actor Ethan Tremblay (Galifianakis) forces Peter to hitch a ride with Ethan—on what turns out to be a cross-country road trip that will ultimately destroy several cars, numerous friendships and Peter's last nerve.

ROAD TRIP FROM HELL
Robert Downey Jr and Zack Galifianakis in Due Date

JOHNNY Knoxville and co are back for the third big-screen installment of the Jackass series, Jackass 3D [18].

As with the two previous films, and television series, the the film sees Knoxville, along with regulars including Bam Margera, Steve-O, Ryan Dunn and more, partake in usually dangerous, often disgusting, and always ridiculous, don't-try-his-at-home stunts.

Cameos include bmx star Mat Hoffman, skateboarding legend Tony Hawk and actor Seann William Scott.

RIGHT ON THE JACKASS | Johnny Knoxville attacked by a dog in Jackass 3D

MATT Reeves' horror Let Me In [15] sees Chloe Moretz (Hit Girl in Kick-Ass) star as Abby, a mysterious 12-year-old who moves next door to Owen (Kodi Mit-McPhee, The Road), a social outcast who is viciously bullied at school. In his loneliness Owen forms a profound bond with his new neighbour, but he can't help noticing that Abby is like no one he has ever met before. As a string of grisly murders grups his wintry New Mexico town, Owen has to confront the reality that his seemingly innocent friend is actually a savage vampire.

Have a Christmas Party at The Fairwater Head Hotel

EVERY year companies throughout the area start wondering what they should do for Christmas. Well this year the decision has been made easier. The owners of the Fairwater Head Hotel, Carrie and Adam Southwell, have put together a very special Christmas package for companies who want to treat their staff to a really great Christmas Party.

It doesn't matter how large your group the Party Package covers the full Christmas works: atmosphere, ambience, celebrations and traditional Christmas fayre. The Fairwater Head Hotel will ensure you have a great party with locally sourced fresh ingredients and a jovial atmosphere.

The menu includes a choice of starters including a Scallop and Prawn Soufflé, Oven Baked Brie or a Roast Vegetable Terrine, while the main course includes a choice of a Traditional Roast Turkey with all the trimmings, Roasted Pheasant, Organic Salmon or a Homemade Nut Roast. Puddings are something else with a selection including a Traditional Christmas Pudding, Winter Berry Soup with a floating Meringue, Truffles or Cheese and Biscuits. This is followed by Homemade Mince Pies.

There's a choice of lunchtimes or evenings with music and dancing included each evening. Costs are from just £24.50 a head but you will need to hurry as dates are filling fast. Just call the hotel for available dates and costs.

This week's winner of a Free Meal for Two at Fairwater Head Hotel is Mr M. Broom, Axminster.

Substantial detached modern home

THIS extremely well presented property is situated in the sought after location of Charlton Down approximately 4 miles to the north of Dorchester.

To the ground floor there is a drawing room with open fire, separate dining room, study / music room, kitchen / breakfast room, utility and cloakroom. On the first floor there are five double bedrooms, en suite shower room and a "Jack and Jill" bathroom. The property is warmed by gas fired central heating and benefits from double glazing.

Outside there is an enclosed, well stocked, private rear garden which wraps around the house and a double garage with forecourt to the front suitable for parking 4 cars.

For viewings contact BartlePye Residential on 01305 230477.

Terraced three storey period cottage

55 HOGSHILL STREET is a terraced three storey period cottage situated just a short level walking distance from The Square.

The cottage has been fully refurbished throughout, to include new UPVC windows (all lead light to front), central heating system, new electrics and plumbing, new roof, new kitchen, bathroom and en-suite, new floorings and redecoration throughout. Believed to date back to pre 1900s, the cottage is built of mainly local stone, with a rendered rear elevation under a slate roof.

The ground floor rooms are both double aspect and are light and spacious, with the sitting room having a feature fireplace (ideal for a wood burner) and French doors to the garden. The dining area has a decorative fireplace and is open-plan to the fitted kitchen which has a door to the rear garden and a useful utility/larder cupboard. The first floor master bedroom is also double aspect and has a decorative fireplace and en-suite wet room. The family bathroom has been well thought out, with a shower over the double-ended bath and ample storage. There is a study on the first floor, with stairs leading to two second floor double bedrooms.

Outside to the rear there is an enclosed south facing walled garden, with gated rear access and a lower ground cellar/garden store. Free street parking is available in Clay Lane. The cottage is for sale with no onward chain.

Accommodation includes: entrance lobby, sitting room, open-plan kitchen and dining room study, three double bedrooms, en-suite wet room, family bathroom, upvc double-glazed windows throughout, gas-fired central heating enclosed south facing walled garden, cellar and no onward chain.

The asking price for 55 Hogshill Street Lane is £250 000. To receive particulars or to arrange a viewing please contact Elder & Froy at our Beaminster office on 01308 862606. To view the full sale particulars and floor plans please go to www.elderfroy.co.uk

Spot the difference.

Actually there is no difference in the pictures of our beautiful town, but frank property is different to other agents.

Mindful of the increasing demands we all face on our time frank is the only agent in Seaton that is open 7 days a week. We are also available out of hours for appointments and accompanied viewings. We tailor the service to meet your needs, isn't that how it should be?

Whilst we offer a local and very personal service the digital age allows us to be the agent on your doorstep with a national reach. We are close enough so that you can come and see us at any time without compromising the exposure your property will receive on the wider property market. Frank is connected to the well-established sites including primelocation.com and findaproperty.com, as well as using the new portals such as zoopla.co.uk & globrix.com.

Based on our excellent relationship with our customers and a first-rate knowledge of the local area we are confident that we can find the right home for you.
Oh, and just so you know, no VAT is currently payable on our fee.

At frank, we see it your way.

DSA to stop publishing questions used in theory tests

THE Driving Standards Agency is to stop publishing the multiple choice questions and answers used in theory tests, Road Safety Minister Mike Penning announced today.

This will help to ensure that new drivers learn the principles behind driving theory rather than just learning answers.

The move follows the introduction of independent driving into the driving test and the DSA's decision to stop publishing test routes in October 2010, to make sure the test assesses a learner's ability to drive and not their capacity to memorise routes.

Mike Penning said:

"The driving theory test should help to prepare drivers for real life on the road - good driving is not just about vehicle-handling skills, but also about having the knowledge and understanding of safe driving theory.

"No longer publishing these questions and answers will mean that successful candidates will have to understand the theory rather than simply memorising answers.

"I believe that this - along with the other changes we are making to the driving test regime - will lead to better drivers and safer roads."

In September 2011 DSA will change the format of books and other learning materials available to help people prepare for theory tests. This will take place at the same time as more challenging case studies are introduced to car and motorcycle theory tests.

Then, from 1 January 2012, DSA will create theory tests using questions which will not be published.

Practice questions and answers, not used in theory tests, will still be available to help candidates with revision.

Other companies which publish products containing DSA theory test questions will also no longer have access to the questions used in the tests.

DISCOVER EXACTLY WHY SUBARU ARE UNLIKE OTHER CARS.

Unlike other cars the unique layout of a boxer engine and permanent Symmetrical All-Wheel Drive affords a safer and more dynamic driving experience.
With an impressive range of vehicles such as the Impreza with its outstanding sporting pedigree, the versatile Forester, the rugged Outback and the executive Legacy, there's a vehicle to suit your every need. We are your local Subaru experts, providing sales and service, as well as a full range of finance packages and regular offers to make it even easier to get into a new 60 plate Subaru.

Impreza range from £16,995

- Stunning performance from a choice of 1.5 and 2.0 petrol or 2.0 Boxer Diesel engines
- Permanent Symmetrical AWD delivers both maximum control and superb handling
- Inside, hard wearing fabrics or fine leather plus a host of features provide maximum comfort

Forester range from £21,295

PERRY STREET LEAGUE WITH HOWARD LARCOMBE

SEASIDERS RETURN TO FORM

Goal crazy Netherbury hit Colts for seven

STAR MAN | Joel Gostling scored and was in fine form as Lyme Regis won 4-1 at Farway United.

HAT-TRICK | Dan Pyett scored all three as Beaminster Res edged out plucky Uplyme 3-2.

TOP SCORER | Tim Hussey scored four of Netherbury's sevenin the rout Ilminster Colts.

PREMIER
Farway Utd 1 Lyme Regis 4
A second-half super show from the Seasiders left hosts Farway United with just a last minute penalty from substitute Andy Diamond to show for their efforts.

A scrappy first-half, punctuated by more fouls than clear-cut scoring opportunities, had 0-0 written all over it until Rob Thomson unleashed a ferocious 25-yard drive that flashed past keeper Phil Woodley and high into the net.

Earlier, both teams had been guilty of squandering penalty kicks. First Joel Gostling saw his kick saved by Woodley and he himself had been hauled down. Then Lyme gloveman Ashley Caddy did well to keep out Ben Williams' 12-yard effort.

The second-half was a totally different affair with Lyme playing some of their best football of the season. Gostling, who had a fine game bristling with attacking verve after the restart, atoned for his earlier miss by jinking past three players and stabbing the ball home in the 52nd minute. A minute later the same player was only denied by an upright as the visitors took control.

Farway did respond briefly and a goalmouth scramble resulted in the Lyme defence lashing the ball clear from under their own crossbar.

But it was a brief respite for the Devonians who were in danger of crumbling under the attacking onslaught. Gostling was again denied – this time by a fine save by Woodley – and Dave Robinson crashed a 20-yarder against the crossbar soon after.

Seasiders' manager Robin Townsend rang the changes on the hour with Julien Simier replacing Joe Bond - and within a minute the Frenchmen had found the net, tapping in from close range after Woodley had parried another effort from Gostling.

Simier made it 4-0 in the 76th minute with a delicate chip from wide on the left to move into double figures for the season and give a perfect response to his manager who decided to leave his top-scorer stewing on the bench - but certainly got the desired response.

Merriott Rovers 7 Barrington 3
STRIKER Scott Jennings took his season's tally to 14 with a double as Merriott cruised to victory over a Barrington side now without a win in five.

Rovers led 2-0 at the interval but goals from Tom Perry, Guy Dare and Rob Luxton saw Barrington battle back to lead.

At 3-3 the game swung on referee Simon Salter's decision to award Steve Burke a second yellow card the hosts used the numerical advantage to cruise home.

Pete Symes and Jack Jennings also netted twice for Rovers and there was a single from Haydn Smith.

Perry Street 2 Combe Res 1
GOALS from Chris Warry (pen) and Ben Stevens saw Perry Street come from behind to beat visiting Combe Reserves and secure their first win in eight league games.

South Petherton 9 Misterton 1
SOUTH Petherton manager Gordy Childs felt his charges left last week's opponents Merriott off the hook by only winning 3-0. There was no repeat on Saturday as Pethy crushed Misterton at Lightgate Lane.
The hosts took and early lead but Misterton were soon level when Craig Studley netted from the penalty spot. But Childs' team, with striker Jodie Bovey back after a 10-week suspension, moved up through the gears and scored at regular intervals to extended their unbeaten league record to 14 games.
Man-of-the-Match Jon Hayter bagged a hat-trick with Marcus Alexander (2), Danny Rendall (2), Lee Richards and Leigh Bailey also on target.

DIVISION ONE
Charmouth 2 Crewkerne Town 5
The forecast goal-rush at Barrs Lane didn't materialise as Charmouth put in a plucky showing to restrict the free-scoring Crewkerne front line.

Indeed the Robins were all square at 2-2 with goals from Adam Cody-Boutcher and Dan Rendall with 15 minutes remaining and a share of the spoils looking likely. But the visitors struck three times late on and Charmouth's winless run continues. "We appeared to lack some fitness late-on and were punished" said Charmouth assistant manager Nick Pomeroy.

Ilminster Colts 2 Netherbury 7
HIT-MAN Tim Hussey took his recent tally to 12 goals in five appearances with four in the hammering of Ilminster Colts.

As a whole the Ambers front line have now plundered four or more goals in each of their last six matches.

Phil Hussey opened proceedings on Saturday and brother Tim doubled the lead before a slump midway through the first-half allowed the hosts to strike twice to level. But Tim Hussey scored again five minutes before the break and the second 45 was one-way traffic, "We were faultless" said Netherbury manager Andy Loudon..

Aaron Marshall slid in at the far post to make it 4-2 soon after the restart and Ryan Gay added number five with what Loudon described as a "cheeky flick".

Hussey rounded things off with two more, the second a fine chip, as the Ambers maintained their third place in the table.

Millwey Rise 7 Thorncombe 0
AS expected in-from Millwey Rise had few problems in disposing of manager-less Thorncombe at First Avenue.

Adam Whitehouse (2), Marc Jenkins (2), Danny Larcombe, Nathan Wormesley and Sam Dibling scored for the Slopers who are now unbeaten in 28 league matches.

Thorncombe meanwhile have announced that ex-Charmouth boss Tommy O'Hare will take over from Gary Parsley who called time on his 10-year stint in the manager's seat last week.

Norton 2 Lyme Regis Reserves 2
LYME Regis Reserves fought back twice to earn a point at the Norton Recreation Ground, but ultimately returned home feeling they should have bagged all three.

The hosts led at the break but Andy Hitchcock got on the end of Man-of-the-Match Ashley Walkey's cross to equalise midway through the half with an classy right-footed flick into the top corner.

Norton looked to have stolen a win when they scored again eight minutes from time but Hitchcock struck again and the Seasiders had their well deserved point.

DIVISION TWO
Beaminster 3 Uplyme 2
BOTH camps felt Uplyme were hard done by not to have taken something from their trip to the Memorial Ground. "They gave it a real go" said Beaminster boss Robin Ormsby.

The hosts took the lead through the lightening quick Dan Pyett but Uplyme top scorer Alex Cottle struck back soon after. Pyett restored the lead but The Swallows were level again through Adam Neale.

The winner came before the interval when Pyett crowned a fine display with his third to move up to 10 for the season.

The visitors almost grabbed a point in the second-half but Paul Sampson's 25-yard shot struck both posts before being hacked clear.

Ormsby picked out goalkeeper Mark Tozer as one of his other top performers whilst Uplyme joint manager Roger Smart felt his whole line-up were worthy of a mention in what he described as: "An outstanding team performance."

Hawkchurch 4 Pymore 1
A 10-MAN move rounded-off by Dan Morley was the highlight Hawkchurch ended a trot of three defeats with victory over visiting Pymore. "It was one of the best goals I've seen at this level" said Hawkchurch manager Nigel Harding.

Morley's strike added to Glenn Harding's opener to put the Hawk's in control. Pymore missed the chance to get back into the game when Leigh Dowle blazed over the bar.

Harding netted his second after the restart before Leo Maguire, on debut after leaving Axminster Town, came off the bench to make it 4-0. Alex Goodrick's fourth of the season counted for little with Pymore player-manager Matt Tither once again bemoaning his side's failure to take chances created.

DIVISION THREE

Luso-Chard 5 Millwey Rise Res 1
THE league's top scorer Marco Quedas took his tally to 16 with two more as Millwey Res were brushed aside at Forton.

Lyme Bantams 2 Misterton Res 3
LYME Bantams' manager Neil MacKenzie was bitterly disappointed to see his team end up empty-handed and testing the Misterton Reserves 100 per cent record to the limit at Venlake.

"I have to say I can't believe we were denied a point when Jamie Jones headed home a late equaliser only for the referee to rule it for a foul. It didn't look like a foul to me, but we do seem to be on the wrong end of some of these decisions."

Rob MacKenzie had earlier put Lyme ahead only for the visitors to square things up before the break.

Ben Morgan was then guilty of having a penalty saved and Missy capitalized by scrambling the ball home to take the lead.

Teenage striker Jack Durrant notched the Seasiders' second but with Jones' 11th-hour strike ruled out, a late header gave Misterton all three points.

DIVISION FOUR
Thorncombe Res 1 Hawkchrch Res 4
A DOUBLE from youngster Jack Larcombe helped Hawkchurch Reserves to victory in the local-derby at Horseshoe Lane. Ben McCafferey and Dave Male scored the Hawks' others.

Waytown Hounds 1 Shepton Res 3
WAYTOWN Hounds surrendered a 1-0 half-time lead to youthful Shepton side at Netherbury.

Tom Rutland put the Hounds ahead and Matt Read struck the crossbar but manager Mark Hughes had no complaints as the visitors took control after restart.

Top performers for the West Dorset side were Rutland and defender Ryan Harwood.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

COLYTON U16 4 UPLYME 3
AFTER a busy opening five minutes Uplyme keeper James Dunford was eventually beaten as the hosts opened the scoring following a neat one-two.

Uplyme skipper Sam Jones had a goal ruled out for offside but was on the scoresheet on the half-hour and the sides' headed into the break all-square.

Coly had the better of play after the restart scoring three times. It could have been more but for Dunford between the sticks.

Jones scored his second from the penalty spot and Knight added a last minute third for a late consolation. Man-of-the-Match for Uplyme was Jack Rumens.

FENITON U9 0
LYME REGIS U10 9
LYME Regis had few problems in overhauling their younger East Devon Opponents.

Ben Prosser (3), Daley Holmes (3), Chris Watson (2) and Josh Caines scored for the Seasiders whose manager Rodney Homes picked out Josh Bennett as his star man.

LATE MOSS MAGIC LIFTS MAGPIES

STAINES 1 DORCHESTER TOWN 2
Blue Square South - Att: 296
RYAN Moss continued his excellent run of good form by notching the winner in added time to complete a hat-trick of Blue Square Bet South victories for Dorchester Town and lift them up to 14th place.

It is almost two years since the Magpies won three league games on the spin and means they have now taken 13 points from their last five matches-

After a goalless first-half, Danny Ings gave them the lead on 56 minutes, but it looked like the county town would have to settle for a point until Moss picked up a ball out of defence to beat his marker and fire past the advancing Louis Wells.

Manager Ashley Vickers was forced into one change with Gary Bowles replacing Scott Guyett in the centre of defence following the former Yeovil Town player's sudden exit from The Avenue to take up a job at Crystal Palace.

Danny Ings fired into the side netting in the sixth minute after cutting in from the right before Moss had a wonderful opportunity to put the Magpies ahead on 18 minutes when he charged down Wells attempted clearance but then failed to put the ball in a virtually unguarded net.

Wells was kept busy as he had to turn Steve Devlin's 20 yard free-kick around the post before Jamie Gleeson blasted the ball over the top after neatly bringing the ball under control.

Both sides had appeals for penalties turned down, but the first-half closed scoreless.

The Swans chances were few and far between but Leroy Griffiths had a chance five minutes after the break but completely miscued his shot.

Moss' acceptance to continually chase balls down paid dividends eleven minutes after the break when Wells made a hash of an attempted clearance.

Moss caught the ball before it crossed the byeline and rolled it across the face of the goal for Ings to tap home and give Dorchester the lead.

It was an error in the Magpies defence that gave Staines their equaliser soon after when Nathan Walker misjudged the speed of the ball played beyond him by Griffiths, allowing Andre Scarlett to nip between him and keeper Simon Evans to score.

Such was Dorchester's dominance that Evans' only duty of the afternoon was to pick the ball out of the net.

Moss' late winner was no more than Dorchester deserved and they now have a chance to climb to midtable respectability if they can beat Bishop's Stortford, who are immediately below the Magpies in the table and visit The Avenue on Saturday.

◆ The Magpies have been drawn away to West-super-Mare in the 3rd qualifying round of the FA Trophy. The tie is scheduled to take place

Triple trouble for Terras

BASHLEY 5 WEYMOUTH 2
Red Insure League Cup
A QUICKFIRE first-half trio of goals effectively ended Weymouth's hopes of a lengthy run in the Red Insure League Cup at Bashley on Wednesday evening.

Things started well for the visitors with stand-in skipper Warren Byerley heading home Sam Charles' pinpoint cross for a 14th minute opener.

But the game was turned on its head by a decisive 10 minute spell either side of the half-hour.

Dominic Allen leveled for the hosts at the second attempt after his first effort had been parried by Ashley Weeks in the Weymouth goal.

Allen added a second soon after and debutant Joe Collins made it 3-1 in the 35th minute.

Tom Hill put the game beyond the Terras on the hour and only a fine finger-tip save from Weeks prevented him a second with a long-range piledriver.

Substitute Eddy Mitchell reduced the arrears with a fine chip in the 88th min ute only for Dave Allen to have the final say five minutes from time.

Legg up for Bees

Shrewton United 0 Bridport 1
Toolstation Division One - Att: 47
RUSSELL Legg's second-half goal earned Bridport three valuable and deserved points at promotion rivals Shrewton United that kept them handily placed in the Toolstation Western League First Division title race.

Legg who was given his chance to re-establish a permanent starting place in Trevor Senior's side in Jamie Symes' absence, took the opportunity with a solid display culminating in the winning goal 15 minutes from the end.

He broke through the home defence and beat two defenders before firing his shot past keeper Chris Brewer into the corner of the net.

Bridport could and should have won by more, and indeed could have scored twice in the first minute through Chris Clarke.

In the opening seconds he produced a right footed snap shot from 10 yards that brought a superb reaction save from Brewer who plucked the ball out of the air, before firing over the top seconds later with a left foot shot.

Bridport had by far the better of the first half and coped well on a fairly uneven surface at the Recreation Ground, and created more chances which unfortunately were off target, whilst Shrewton's best effort was a shot that hit the side netting.

The host's came into it more in the second period, but it was Bridport who threatened most with Ryan Dovell unlucky not to score after rounding the keeper, but his shot from an acute angle was cleared off the line.

Minutes later Adam Symes broke through, but his lobbed effort not only cleared Brewer but also the bar.

Gary Bulman who had been drafted into the side when Darren Watts withdrew with a trapped nerve in his back was unlucky to be red carded along with Shrewton's Carl Jones who headbutted the Bees midfielder after Bulman had blocked his attempted clearance. Bulman put his hands up to defend himself when Jones went to repeat the feat, and referee Gibbons dismissed both.

After Legg's goal the Bees felt they also had a very good penalty shout turned down when Clarkes driven cross from the left hit a defenders hand, but the referee turned down the appeals.

Once again the Bridport defence kept a clean sheet, and whilst Shrewton applied more pressure on them in the second-half they did not look like scoring, with Sam Filkins once again not having a shot of any note to save.

Bees hit by Moores triple

Bridport Res 2
Hamworthy Recreation 3
BRIDPORT Reserves looked to be putting their poor run of results behind them when they led reigning champions Hamworthy Recreation 2-1 at the interval at St Mary's Field on Saturday.

However the unbeaten visitors currently holding third spot in Magna Dorset Premier League were too strong for the young Bees after the break and took all three points with a hat trick from Jamie Moores.

Bridport started slowly and were a goal down inside five minutes, but they fought back to level when Ben Clarke headed home Jamie Fry's free-kick midway through the half and then took the lead when Chris Herbst converted from the penalty spot after Martin Bulman had been pulled down inside the box.

Hamworthy Rec upped the tempo at the start of the second half and Moores equalised before completing his hat-trick with a free far post header.

Ben Clarke almost grabbed an equaliser late on but his header from Robin Jones' cross just missed the post.

Joint manager Steve Crabb said: "I thought all our good work from last week's 7-1 win over Hamworthy United had been wasted when we went one down so early but the lads did well to pick up their game and we deserved to be ahead at the break.

"However it seemed inevitable in the second half that they would equalise as they stepped up their game and although we lost there were several positives to take from the game.

The three subs Robin Jones, Gino Scovell and Tom Nott who all stepped up from the Thirds all did well when they came on, and that is good for the club that there is good, young talent coming through the ranks.

"We were not disgraced by any means although our record doesn't look good, but in a lot of the matches we have stayed in the game for 70 minutes but lost it in the final quarter and we need to improve on that."

Balti too hot for Bees

Bridport Thirds 3 The Balti House 4
BRIDPORT Thirds found The Balti House too hot for them on Saturday and slipped to their first defeat of the season in Dorset League Division Two after throwing away a two goal interval lead.

After a stunning start to the campaign the Bees have stuttered in recent weeks. Having won their first four games they drew three of the following four before this defeat.

Ali Kamara was in fine form for the Bees notching a hat trick. He gave Bridport the lead on 20 minutes when he reacted quickest when Balti keeper Andy Nott could not hold a shot.

Balti upped their game and Lee Cuff made a great save from Marco Nott's 30-yard shot before Ross Walker hit the bar with a blistering drive.

Despite the pressure, Kamara bagged his second to give the Bees a healthy interval lead.

Marco Nott pulled one back ten minutes after the restart from close range before Cuff produced two excellent saves from Tom Grattidge to keep the visitors at bay.

However they levelled the scores soon after when Adam Sargent headed home Grattidge's corner.

Balti moved up a gear and further goals from Marco Nott and Craig Knock put them in command. Although Kamara completed his hat-trick eight minutes from the end, Gary Harvey almost made it five with a shot that hit the post.

Bridport U15 1 Hampton Matravers 0
BRIDPORT U15 recorded the narrowest of victories against fellow promotion rivals Hampton Matravers on Sunday.

Due to injury and unavailability of key players the young Bridport team was forced to make many changes for this important clash with key central defender Tom McNamee standing-in between the sticks.

The Young Bees had the better of the opening period with the inform Kiaran Mason providing the spark for the only goal of the game, his surging left wing run and deep far post cross was converted by Callum Pattinson following good work by Jordan Daniels.

The second-half was a totally different game with the visitors dominating for long periods, whilst Bridport failed to establish any meaningful rhythm or pattern to their play.

In the end it was Bridport's determination, defender Dan Baggs cleared off the line twice, that saw them collect all three points. Joint Men-of-the-Match were Will Miller and McNamee.

Bridport U13 7 Weymouth 3
BRIDPORT started brightly and Jon Paul Avery came close in the first minute. It took 10 minutes for the deadlock to be broken, and it was some superb wing play from Joel Eckett that created the chance.
Eckett rounded the left back and put in a perfect cross that was helped on by Liam Sayers to Owen Ward and he lobbed the ball over the keeper with precision.

Bridport continued to create chances. Avery skipped passed two players and into the area and a smart pass found Liam Sayers who slotted home from close range. It was all Bridport, but Weymouth looked dangerous from the counter attack

However, a long ball just after half-time gave Weymouth the opportunity to charge forward in numbers and finished past Joe Mace Mckenney. 2-1

Sayers calmly side foot the third Bridport goal of the game to restore the advantage.

Then came the customary defensive lapses that we always seem to suffer from, and Weymouth scored two goals in quick succession to make it 4-3.

However, from then on in the game it was all Bridport and Rhys Hayter was chopped down in the area for a penalty with about 20 minutes left to go. Hayter made it 5-3 from the spot.

Then Bridport really seemed to play with some freedom and Sayers recorded his third hat-trick of the season. Eckett rounded off the scoring at 7-3

Joint Men-of-the-Match were Sayers and Hayter.

Heathlands U11 2 Bridport 4
JAKE Rowland gave Bridport an early lead which was doubled before half-time by Jaydon Scadding's penalty after Thomas Hyde had been fouled.

The hosts reduced the arrears after the restart but further strikes from Jake Rowland and Scadding took the young Bees clear.

Nathan Rollett and Jamie Herbert both put in good performances for Bridport.

Youngsters in for free at Dorch Town FC

DORCHESTER Town Football Club are pleased to announce the launch of the "Let's Be Avenue" initiative which will be trialling free entry to home games for all fans aged 16 and under and Thomas Hardye School 6th form students.

The aim of the initiative is, in the short term, to increase attendances at The Avenue stadium for home games by providing the opportunity for younger fans to watch games free of charge with the longer term aim of retaining those younger fans in future years.

The free entry will initially be trialled from this Saturday's game against Bishop's Stortford up to and including our boxing day game against Weston-super-Mare, when the success of the scheme will be assessed and a decision as to whether to extend the scheme further will be made.

◆ The games during the trial period are:
Saturday 6th November - Bishop's Stortford
Tuesday 9th November - Maidenhead United
Saturday 27th November - Basingstoke Town
Saturday 18th December - Chelmsford City
Sunday 26th December - Weston-super-Mare

Football Club Chairman Shaun Hearn said "Given our recent run of form I would hope there will be a good crowd for the game against Bishop's Stortford particularly as it will coincide with the launch of the Let's Be Avenue initiative.

"The younger fans are the future of the football club and it would be great to see as many youngsters as possible make use of the free entry.

If the scheme is a success then we will look at extending it further. We already charge the lowest ticket prices in the league and now children can go to games for free we hope that this will make attending home games even more affordable for families".

Free entry will not apply to any cup games. 6th form students must produce a valid Thomas Hardye School student ID card at the turnstiles to be eligible for free entry.

RUGBY ROUND-UP

WITH KEITH JENKIN

Double set back for Weymouth

WEYMOUTH 18 BLANDFORD 31

ALTHOUGH the home side gave their opponents the advantage of the slight breeze in the first period, they could hardly have got off to a better start.

Having bundled the visitors into touch on halfway, they won the ensuing lineout, sent the ball wide for blind side winger Quick to make a telling incursion into the line. He cut a good angle and released to Lewendon who got over 15 yards from the posts and, although the conversion kick went wide, Weymouth seemed to be in charge.

Blandford however got a score back before the game was five minutes old when they kicked a penalty after the home side had infringed on their own twenty two and in front.

They missed another a few minutes later and it seemed, at this stage, that the game was developing into a contest between the Blandford pack and the quicker home backs. The visitors' eight, although seemingly lighter, was getting about well in the loose, and was doing well in the linesout.

Weymouth too were infringing rather too much and the Blandford kicker put his side into a 6-5 lead after 15 minutes with another simple penalty goal.

The home side failed to kick their unfortunate habit of infringing in front of their own posts and were duly made to pay after some twenty five minutes when the visitorsí number10 kicked his third penalty of the afternoon.

Weymouth did have a chance to reduce the arrears on the half hour, but Lewendon's penalty kick from near halfway, although it threatened the posts, just slid wide. He made amends a few minutes later however by converting from some 35 yards and from a wide angle to take the scoreline to 8-9, only for the final minutes of the half to belong to Blandford.

They took up residence in the home twenty two, spurned a couple of penalty chances, preferring to kick to the corner. The tactic paid off for them when one of their pack squeezed over out wide after a ruck had formed from an ensuing lineout. The try was goaled with an excellent kick from near touch and Blandford led 16-8 at the halfway stage.

I felt at this stage, that the home side were still 'in with a shout', always providing that they stopped infringing, for they would have the advantage of the breeze in the second half.

As it was however, the first few minutes of the half were pivotal to the result and the 'rub of the ref.' certainly did not go Weymouth's way. I thought they should have had a penalty in their opponentsí twenty two directly from the kick-off, after a Blandford player had gathered a knock-on by one of his colleagues while standing in front.

The referee saw it differently and the visitors ran the ball into the home half, won a penalty, received a further 10 yards after Weymouth had 'rabbited', kicked the award to the corner and scored a try from the ensuing lineout that they converted.

Weymouth came back immediately however, via a Lewendon penalty goal but, with the score now standing at 11-23, they had much to do and they continued to be the architects of their own downfall, conceding a penalty more or less straight from the restart, and they were again made to pay.

Another Blandford try followed before the game was an hour old and, although it was unconverted, it took the scoreline to 11-31 and Weymouth now had to score three converted tries if they were to snatch the win.

Credit to them, for they did mount something of a rally and spent much of the last quarter in their opponents' twenty two. They gave away promising positions however by conceding penalties and, although a penalty try came to them, converted by Lewendon after they had pressurised their opponentsí line, it was never going to be enough and their opponents held on with some comfort.

Weymouth will be disappointed with their performance. They conceded far too many penalties and got on the wrong side of authority, who did not have the best of games to my mind.

Their lineout too, did not function as well as it could have done and, all in all, they let the game slip away after a promising start.

DORCHESTER 2nd 8 WEYMOUTH 2nd 5

IT wasn't that good a day for the Weymouth second side. They lie in the runners up spot in the Dorset & Wilts League Division Three (South) and obviously have aspirations to be promoted.

They lost narrowly after a pretty close encounter at Dorchester thirds, who now join them in second place.

BRIDPORT 5FROME 16

THIS was a typical clash between teams who lie very much in the bottom half of the table.

The visitors had a rather large and lumpy pack of forwards but, in the event, the first 30 minutes were evenly contested.

Play was confined for the most part, to midfield and the game was half an hour old before the first score came. Frome got it via an interception and, as the try was scored under the posts, as the majority of interception tries are, the extras were duly added.

The home side then roused themselves and got a score back before the change round when winger Cutting got over out wide for an unconverted try to take the score to 5-7 at the break.

Bridport could and should have gone on to win from there, for their opponents were not offering much more than solid competition. They proceeded to take wrong options consistently however, and to sacrifice attacking positions by the conceding of penalties.

They tended to infringe when in their own territory also, and the Frome place kicker converted three penalty awards in the second half to take his side to a win that they really needed, and one that puts some distance between them and the three bottom clubs.

DORCHESTER 2nd 32 BRIDPORT 2nd 12

THERE is no doubt that the impact of a club's injury list is more keenly felt in the second side than in the first.

Bridport seconds find themselves in this unenviable position at the moment and must be wondering just where their next win will come from.

Dorchester for their part, ran out comfortable winners and this bonus point win cements them in a mid table place.

CORSHAM 40 DORCHESTER 7

DORCHESTER would have known that a difficult task awaited them at Corsham, for their hosts have been playing well this season.

They would not have been aware however that Lady Luck was to desert them completely. They played into the breeze during the first period and spent much of the first quarter pinned in their own half during which time they conceded a penalty goal and an unconverted try, following a successful Corsham kick and chase.

A second penalty, kicked around the half hour, increased the home lead to 11-0, as Dorchester were beginning to work their way into the contest, only for disaster to then strike. They were attacking deep in home territory, won a penalty, took a quick tap and the ball carrier was tackled within ten yards of the award.

The referee thought otherwise and, while Dorchester were awaiting a second award, the home side kicked and chased. Balment then obstructed a chaser and, apart from receiving a yellow card, conceded a penalty try.

This took the score to 18-0 and, in his absence, a further try and penalty goal took Corsham 26 points ahead and virtually sewed up the result by the break.

Now with the wind at their backs, Dorchester did make a fight of it in the second-half, matching a Corsham converted try with one of their own, touched down by Balment, who converted his own score.

It was never going to be anything other than a consolation however, and Corsham sealed the win with another converted try near the end, that was perhaps also a little controversial.

Corsham are a very useful side and one which will be close to a promotion place at the seasonís end. They deserved to win this one and one can not really argue with their winning margin of five to one in tries.

Dorchester, for their part, will be hoping that Lady Luck favours them in a similar vein next time out.

PREVIEW

THE first Saturday in November sees the start of the autumn internationals, with England taking on the All Blacks. On the local front, the leagues take a Saturday off and local cups come to the fore.

As both BRIDPORT and DORCHESTER lost in their first round cup encounters, there are no arranged games for them at either first or second team level, although I know that the former club will be looking for a game in the fixture pool to try to re establish some cohesion to their play.

WEYMOUTH are involved, after beating Sutton Benger in the last round of the Dorset & Wilts competition. They take on PUDDLETOWN and will probably have rather too much pace and power for their opponents who reside in the bottom half of the Dorset & Wilts League Division Two (South) at the moment.

The Weymouth second side, winners last time out in the cup, were to have played opponents from Swindon but these have conceded.

FIXTURES 6th November

Bridport v Pool Game, Honiton v Teignmouth, Honiton 2nd v Exeter Saracens 2nd Sidmouth v Brixham, Kingsbridge 2nd v Sidmouth 2nd, Sidmouth 3rd v Egham, South Molton v Sidmouth Colts, Weymouth v Puddletown.

Rugby extras

IVEL BARBARIANS U16 17
BRIDPORT 32

Bridport extended their unbeaten run with a good win in their closest match so far, due in part to the uncontested scrums caused by the hosts' lack of a front row, thus depriving Bridport of one of their areas of strength in previous matches writes Geoff Hunt.

Even so, it was the blues who opened the scoring after 15 minutes when Eli Halkes-Wellstead got the ball 15m out and through some neat footwork, escaped the tacklers and touched down for the try.

The restart kick was knocked on and from the ensuing scrum, Ivel formed a maul which they drove all the way to the Bridport line before the scrum-half dived through a gap in the blues close defence to even the scores.

A few minutes later, Ivel were on the attack again, with a long kick behind the Bridport defence. The rearmost Bridport went back for the ball and tried to run it out but was caught by the Ivel runners, fortunately he got the ball away to Will Haggerty who kicked for territory. Any kick is only as good as the chase, and this one was out of the top drawer as Haggerty arrived just as indecision struck Ivel and they watched the ball bounce - straight into his hands without breaking stride allowing him to motor all the way to the try line.

With 5 minutes remaining Bridport failed to get defenders away from the breakdown allowing the Ivel winger to score in the corner.

The last play of the half saw Bridport give away a soft try as they failed to lay a hand on the Ivel breakaway runner and the scrum-half simply stepped over the line to score beneath the posts. The try was converted with the last kick of the half and Bridport went in 17-10 down.

The rest seemed to do Bridport good as they took the game to their hosts right from the start, determined driving forced Ivel back and each time the ball came out of a ruck, Bridport were on them, forcing them back even further. When they reached the 22, Ivel desperately clung onto the ball in the tackle and were penalised. The referee marched them back 10m when they complained and wise heads elected to let Tyler Adams take the 3 points on offer. Five minutes later and Bridport were again on the attack, this time a scrum for not-straight at the line out allowed them to try out a move from the training paddock. A dummy scissors move was called and split the Ivel defence so well that Charlie Samways ran through unchallenged to score under the posts, Adams adding the conversion.

The final five minutes were a flurry of activity as Bridport saved their best until last. Clearing their lines with a long kick from stolen line-out ball, the entire back line chased it down and quickly regained possession.

Some slick inter-passing between Samways and Mike Holden kept the attack going until Haggerty ran in and score in a good position for Tom White to add the conversion.

After a short stoppage while one of the Ivel players was red-carded for stamping, Bridport carried on where they left off. Sustained pressure on a retreating Ivel defence eventually forced the error and the ball went loose to James Hansford who scored in the corner to seal the victory.

CHARD U16 7 BRIDPORT 25

BRIDPORT started well, stealing an early line-out, and stepping through the defence, quickly passed the ball to Dylan White on the wing to score in the corner for the only score of the first period of a three 20 minute period game.

The blues started the second period pressing well and were soon rewarded with a five metre scrum after being held up over the line. A simple loop pass held the defence while Harry Richardson got the ball on the wing powering over the line taking two tacklers with him.

A quickly taken free-kick let Will Haggerty race through some weak tackling until halted by the full back, support arrived quickly, and Haggerty was on hand to take the last pass spinning out of a tackle to reach the line.

Chard capitalised on a Bridport error and intercepted a pass to run in close to the posts. By the third period replacements and injuries disrupted Bridport, however, Nat Halkes-Wellstead took a quick free-kick but was held up short.

The ball was recycled and fed to Tyler Adams who crashed through two tackles to score. The forwards provided the final score when Oliver Bowen-Ashwin picked up from the base of a five metre scrum and dived over the line.

Top girls rugby comes to Bridport

THERE is a chance to see top girls county rugby at Bridport this weekend which is hoped will instil interest in local girls to try the sport by taking part in taster sessions the following weekend.

Dorset and Wilts U18s and U15s girls teams are playing a county representative match against their Somerset counterparts at the Brewery Fields, home of Bridport Rugby Club, this Sunday (November 7th), both matches kicking off at 2pm. These matches have been rescheduled following the cancellation of the matches at Bridport last season.

With the Women's World Cup having just ended with England finishing as runners up, focus on the girls' game has been increased throughout the country, and it is hoped that a large crowd will take advantage of watching the girls in action.

There has been some interest expressed by local girls in starting an U15s rugby team at Bridport, and hopefully they will take this opportunity to watch the county teams.

Taster sessions for girls interested in playing rugby will be run by Bridport RFC coaches on November 14th and 21st for girls in year 7 and above starting at 2pm

Any girls interested in seeing if rugby is the sport for them then please come along to the taster sessions and have a go, or contact Geoff Hunt on 07817751405 for further details.

Improvements to The golf Course

THROUGHOUGHT the past two seasons the Lyme Regis Golf Club management committee have made some significant improvements to both the course and to the general appearance of the club greens and fairways.

In addition to what some would describe as "mischievous" placing of additional features and obstacles on the course, the emphasis has been very much on the improvement of information for both the visitor and club member alike.

In this respect there has been an improvement to the signage to the tees and the placement of a chart of each hole on each of the tees to assist the golfer in planning their strategy of play.

This has only been possible with the generous sponsorship of local businesses and club members. Additionally, the entrance to the club has been significantly enhanced by the hard work of club member Mike Hankey in the removal of excessive foliage at the entrance and the creation of attractive flower beds.

Furthermore, as perhaps one of the most significant enhancements to information available to both home and visiting golfers has been the erection of an events notice board clearly displaying the planned programme for the forthcoming two weeks.

This was recently made possible through the generous sponsorship of club members Royston and Emma Davies the owners of Lyme Regis Holidays.

Junior Golf*: With weather conditions still favouring good scores the club junior section staged one of their regular Stableford competitions.*

With scores, in the main, being very respectable George Seed playing exactly to his handicap, was yet again the winner. First three placings were as follows:

1st 36pts G Seed, 2nd 34pts G Yorke, 3rd 32pts Kai-To Li

Seniors golf*: On 1st November,with a heavy dew still on the ground and a slight chill in the air, 77 club seniors took to the course to contest the monthly stableford competition.*

As the day progressed the temperature rose and the dew evaporated to give improved distance from the tee and run along the ground.

Although some found the recent growth of grass on the greens difficult to handle, scores were, in the main highly respectable. None more so than that carded by the new club captain Ray Farrell who recorded a 4 below handicap 40 points to win division 1.

Close behind were John Chance and Brian Clark with 38 points, with John achieving second place on countback. Division 2 was won by David Newell with 37 points followed by Bill Giles in second place on countback and Max Thorner in third with a level par 36 points.

Speed sailors welcomed home

LAST week saw an interesting array of sailors from all over the globe, including 73 year old Fred Ball, competing in the Dakine Weymouth Speed Week at the Weymouth and Portland National Sailing Academy (WPNSA).

The event started in 1973 and is the oldest running speed event in the world, making Weymouth the original home of speed sailing in its pure form. The official British Championships ensured that all possible was done to allow harbour records to be broken, by kitesurfers, windsurfers and sailors. The event is centred on an accurately measured 500 metre course located in Portland Harbour. This provides the challenge for the speed sailor to pit his wits against the elements.

The lack of rules provides the ideal opportunity for both experts and dreamers to build the type of boats which, but for this event, would never see the light of day; competitors can be referred to as drivers, sailors or pilots. Mirabaud LX, competing in their first ever speed week, was designed to fly on its hydrofoils. 2010 once again saw many returning racers set to take on the course with their new craft, undeterred by their failures and delighted when their good ideas worked.

Competitors help develop the sport and grow it internationally, to push the limits of other national and world records. The course at Weymouth is suited to all competitors from boats to the kiters, so if the wind blows, harbour records could fall.

Despite being held in autumn every year to tie in with the Winter Equinox in the pursuit of high winds, there were no new harbour records for 2010 and the record still stands with Anders Bringdal, who achieved a speed of 38.2 knots in 2008.

The week, however, did see some exciting racing with trials taking part every day of the event and 33 knots being the highest speed recorded. The final standings were 1sta place kite boarder, James Longmuir at 33.419 knots; 2nd place Sailboat, Kevin Greenslade at 32.753 and; 3rd place kite boarder David Williams at 32.075 knots.

John Tweed, Chief Executive at the WPNSA, commented: "Dakine Weymouth Speed Week holds a special place in the hearts of Weymouth and Portland residents as well as the speed challenging world. Dorset has been the chosen annual venue for this unique event since 1973 and international speedsters flock to the flat waters of Portland Harbour year on year to put their latest technological evolutions and experiments to the ultimate test.

"This historical event with a modern developmental hook will continue with the academy into the next decade and beyond bringing the delights of speed record breaking stars to our shores."

Weymouth & District Table Tennis

COLLITON C have set the early pace in the newly-formed third division as the only team to win all of their three opening fixtures that included a narrow 19-15 success over Broadwey's newest club, Springfield & Sons.

Springfield stalwart Andy Millar and fellow father Steve Cockram set up the new team so that they could play alongside sons Sam Millar and Lewis Cockram, and it was Millar senior's experience that very nearly turned this match Springfield's way.

Millar returned a nine-sets maximum haul without dropping a single set but young Lewis Cockram could be proud of his four-games capture that included a terrific four-sets upset of veteran campaigner Eric Potter (4).

However both Valerie and Katherine Bundy weighed in with six sets apiece which, coupled with their last gasp five-sets doubles defeat of Andy Millar and Lewis Cockram, was enough to seize victory on the night.

Meanwhile the second division title race rarely is completely wide open as Colliton B have shown by winning just two of their opening four fixtures – enough though to top the table.

Amazingly Pilgrims have suffered five straight defeats but, such is the scoring system (where every set won counts), they still lie second in the table.

Possible the best game so far in the division featured both sides with Colliton just sneaking a 20-18 win.

Stuart Walden top-scored for Pilgrims with a full nine sets for the loss of just one game in a four-setter with Tony Bonnen (7).

Game of the night saw Richard Ellerby (4) muscled out by Bonnen with Phil Holdcroft and Barry Thomas both finding six sets it meant the hosts only had to find a single game in the doubles at 19-15 ahead to ensure victory which is exactly what they did in a 3-1 reverse.

In the top division it's Springfield A that enjoy a slender lead at the top that owes much to their resounding 28-12 success over Civil Service B.

Gordon (7) and John Bissett (9) were joined by new signing Sean Ferguson and the former Physiques and Shapes captain didn't disappoint as he overcame the challenge of Clive Stow (5), Steve Bill (4) and Sean Beauchamp (2) all in four-set games.

Stow staged a stirring fight-back from 2-0 down against George Bissett, to finally stroll home to victory by dropping just five points in the next three games in a game that ended 7-11, 9-11, 11-3, 11-0, 11-2 in Stow's favour.

MATCH REPORT - SHIPTON GORGE A 24 YMCA 14

A LATE start to their season meant that Shipton began this match at the bottom of the league but they went straight into top gear with a good win over one of the division's stronger sides.

Richard Trim started where he left off last season with 9 points from 3-0,3-1,3-1 wins and, although he lost 3-0 to John Cox, Chris Glover triumphed 3-1 and 3-0 over Brian Handsford and Ken Brake. Gil Roberts also picked up 6 points with close 3-2 wins over Cox and Brake but lost 0-3 to Handsford to give the visiting skipper his only win of the night.

Roberts and Trim combined effectively to take the doubles 3-1 and round off a good evenings table tennis.

Football festival to celebrate new hi-tech supergrass pitch

YOUNG footballers from West Dorset will be taking part in a festival of football to test out the district's new third generation artificial pitch.

The state-of-the-art surface at Dorchester's Thomas Hardye Leisure Centre is filled with rubber crumbs and able to withstand more intensive use than a traditional grass pitch. It also needs lower maintenance and isn't affected by severe weather conditions.

On Saturday, November 6th, youth teams from Dorchester, Bere Regis and Puddletown will take part in a series of mini football matches and FA skill coaches and players from Dorchester Town Football Club will be on hand to help the aspiring footballers improve their technique.

The Magpies will be using the new pitch as the main training facility for the first team. The district council has been working with the club and other local teams to increase the number of young people playing football.

The surface, which meets international football authorities' standards, has been designed to improve player comfort, minimise injuries and reduce ball bounce.

The new supergrass can be used by the community and bookings can be made by contacting the leisure centre. Students at Thomas Hardye School will also be using the new pitch as part of their PE lessons.

West Dorset District Council Chairman Ronald Coatsworth will officially open the new pitch and give out certificates to those taking part in the festival.

Cllr Coatsworth said: "We are delighted that West Dorset residents and local teams such as Dorchester Town Football Club and the local youth teams now have access to these state-of-the-art-facilities.

"Local people have been able to use the new pitch since the summer and we have been thrilled with the number of people booking the pitches.

This will be a great asset for West Dorset and a boost to local football. I hope these new facilities will encourage more people across the district to take up the sport."

Scott Symes from Dorchester Town Youth said: "This new surface provides an outstanding opportunity for local young players to enjoy their football and to develop their technical ability all year round, whatever the weather."

The district council secured £124,400 from the Football Foundation to resurface the artificial turf pitch and kickstart a three year programme to promote football in Dorchester and the surrounding area. Dorset County Council also provided funding for the new pitch.

Funded by the Premier League, The FA and the Government, the Football Foundation is the nation's largest sports charity. Launched in July 2000, the Foundation celebrated its tenth anniversary this summer and has so far supported 8,000 community sports projects worth £920m.

In Dorset alone it has funded 129 community projects worth £3.8m.

To find out more about booking the 3G pitch, call Thomas Hardye Leisure Centre on 01305 266772.

FIRST FOR LIV

West Dorset Warriors Swimming Club

LIV FREEMAN, aged 13, was one of nine debutants for Dorset in this year's British Gas ASA National County Team Championships, Division One, at Ponds Forge, Sheffield.

Liv was West Dorset Warriors' sole representative in the Dorset team, where the UK's top 20 county teams compete against each other.

A pupil of Thomas Hardye School, she has been swimming with the Warriors for seven years and thoroughly deserved her selection. Proud to represent her county for the first time in the nationals, she forewent the Warriors' own club championships which were held on the same weekend.

Liv swam the final freestyle leg of the 12/13 years girls 200m medley relay, helping the Dorset quartet beat neighbouring teams from Devon and Hampshire, and has greatly benefited from her first experience and looks forward to swimming for Dorset again.

INSIDE: Dorchester & District Snooker League news

Bowles fills Guyet gap

NEWS that recent signing and skipper Scott Guyett was leaving the club at short notice to take up a job with Crystal Palace stunned Dorchester manager Ashley Vickers, but he was more than pleased with his replacement Gary Bowles after the Magpies secured their third consecutive victory at Staines on Saturday.

Guyett, the former Yeovil Town and AFC Bournemouth defender who joined the club just two months ago on non-contract terms has left to take up a post as a conditioning coach at the npower Championship side.

Vickers said: "It came out the blue really. Scott has a degree in this type of work and was offered the job on a one month trial on Thursday. It is of course a great opportunity for him and we wish him all the best.

"He doesn't know yet what it fully entails in terms of working hours, and we will have to wait and see how it pans out. If he is free on Saturday afternoons then I hope he will be able to continue to play for us, even if he is not available all the time."

Fortunately despite a small squad, Vickers had the ideal replacement in Bowles who has just returned after injury, and he gave a superb performance in the heart of the defence.

"Bowlsey has matured both as a man and player and taken everything on board, and although he hasn't played with Nathan Walker for a while, he was superb, and it augers well for the future if he can maintain this level of performance."

Vickers also moved quickly to add to the squad by signing former QPR and Rushden & Diamonds versatile all rounder Josh Ford on a pay-as-you-play deal.

Ford was expected to make his debut in Tuesday night's Dorset Senior Cup match at home to Gillingham Town.

Former Magpie Jamie Mudge is another who could play against Bishop's Stortford on Saturday. The 27-year-old Bideford striker formed a good partnership with Ryan Moss when he was at The Avenue but left in early 2009 during the financial crisis at the county town club.

He was due to train with the club last Thursday but couldn't make it, and is expected this week.

"We will run the eye over him and look hopefully to include him in Saturday's squad."

However he will not be able to be reunited with Moss who is suspended, something that disappointed the Magpies boss.

"Mossy is playing out of his skin at the moment, his winning goal on Saturday was just reward for another excellent performance, and it would have been nice to see them back together again."

Vickers is also trying to get Danny Ings loan period extended beyond this week. He has been in touch with his club AFC Bournemouth but at the time of going to press is awaiting confirmation of his request.
